My heartiest thanks to my dearest husband Shakaib Arsalan who always stood like a pillar of strength to support me in times of need and distress. He was the person behind my every smile which came after overcoming the most difficult situation faced by me during this period. He always extended his hand before each pitfall, lend an ears to all my worries & prolonged, protracted discussions and provided help in every moment.

It is a pleasure to convey special thanks to my friend Dr. Lubna, Dr. Kaneez, Naheen and Parmeet for their unirking support and infusing energy and enthusiasm in during my adverse times.
My acknowledgement would be incomplete if I do not mention a note of appreciation for my juniors specially Ayaz who always stood beside me and lend their helping hands during the hours of need. Thanks are due Abdul Bari Naik and Wahid for all the kind gestures shown.

This thesis is undoubtedly a dream for my family members. No phrase or words can express my thanks towards my parents who always stood like a beam of sunshine while I was climbing the stairs of my academic career. I owe everything to them and my overall success is merely the result of their blessings. Special gratitude is extended towards my brothers (Akram & Azam) and my in-laws family members specially my father-in-law who always helped me emotionally, and morally to reach this important milestone of my life. His support, encouragement and confidence in me were simply marvellous and commendable. The best thing about him was inspite he knew very little about my actual work, still he left no stones unturned to help in times of need.

I am deeply indebted to the members of the Seminar library Department of Geography and members of M.A. library, AMU, Aligarh for providing me all sorts of material needed in this regard.
