CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

I  BODY AND CULTURE

1.1 Culture of individuals
1.2 Colonial body structures
1.3 Theatre as a cultural system

II  INTERCULTURALISM

2.1 The Concept of "Interculturality"
2.2 Intercultural Body
2.3 A review of current thinking on Interculturalism: Bhikhu Parekh –interactive multiculturalism
2.4 Theatre Interculturalism: The nature of Intercultural exchanges
2.5 Intercultural Theatre training concepts in Asia
2.6 Training of Tadashi Suzuki
2.7 King Lear (Theatre) and Akira Kurosawa’s Kumonosu-ju or Throne of Blood (Film)-Analysis of two Intercultural performances in Japan

III.  POST INDEPENDENCE INDIAN THEATRE-AN ENCOUNTER WITH TRADITIONAL INDIAN BODY DYNAMISM

3.1 IPTA
3.2 Prithvi Theatre
3.3 Music and Movements
3.4 Back to Classics
3.5 New Folkloric Theatre
3.6 Modern Classics
3.7 Rise of Modern Theatre
3.8 Rejection of Proscenium Theatre
3.9 Modern Indian Actor’s Body training/dynamism
IV  HYBRID, VIRTUAL - CYBER SPACE BODIES -
THE BODIES OF URBAN INDIA

4.1  Human computer interaction-Technological revolution with body in Theatre spaces  79

4.2  Net Browsing –Virtual World  80

V.  INTERACTION WITH CULTURE AND LANGUAGES IN INDIAN THEATRE - AN ATTEMPT FOR INTERCULTURAL
EXPLORATIONS

5.1  Root of Intercultural exploration-Amalgamation or Evolution?  89

5.2  A Workshop to observe Intercultural communication with out language  92

VI.  THE ESTAPPAN PROJECT: AN INTERCULTURAL
PERFORMANCE TO EXPLORE THE BODY DYNAMICS OF ACTORS BELONGING TO DIFFERENT CULTURES INDIA-
JAPAN-CHINA

6.1  The Script - ESTAPHANOS 1800B.C  106

6.2  The workshop Preparation for the Play  145

VII. CONCLUSION- CONTEMPORARY INDIAN
BODY/THEATRE/INTERCULTURAL /PERFORMANCE
DYNAMISM

VIII. RESEARCH OUTCOMES

Bibliography