

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I owe the idea, inspiration and guidance for this thesis to my supervisor Dr. Syed Ali Nadeem Rezavi. Despite his preoccupied engagements and improper health he paid full attention to the progress of my work. I am also highly grateful to him for his constructive criticism and valuable suggestions he gave and also for providing me a lot of articles and books from his personal collection.

I feel privileged to acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude for Late Dr. Iqbal Ghani Khan, under whom I had initially enrolled for Ph. D. It was he who motivated me to take this task and accomplish it. Before his untimely death he ably guided me not only in my research field but also in every sphere of life. Sir, you always remain in our memories.

I consider myself to be very lucky to have received additional and extremely precious encouragement and advice from Prof. Irfan Habib (Prof. Emeritus) and Prof. Shireen Moosvi.

I am highly indebted to Dr. Ishrat Alam (Member Secretary, Indian Council of Historical Research, New Delhi) for his immense and unending academic help since M. A. days. He made some books available for me which was not available to me otherwise. He also allowed me to use his personal collections.

This acknowledgement would be incomplete without appreciating the help I received from Prof. U. S. Shrivastva (Retired Chairman, Department of Hindi, AMU), Prof. Afzal Husain, Prof. Farhat Hassan, Dr. Jabir Raza, Dr. Jaya Menon, Dr. Hassan Imam and Dr. Javed Akhtar of History department for their constant help and encouragement.

I am grateful to the Indian Council of Historical Research for awarding me Junior Research Fellowship as well as a grant for the binding of this thesis.

I am also thankful to the library staff of the Centre of Advanced Study, Department of History, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh for their support and cooperation especially to Mr. Moin, Salman, Bansi Dhar, Arshad, Zubair and others. I also acknowledge the support and cooperation which I received from Khuda Bakhs Library, Patna, Maulana Azad Library, Aligarh, Hakim Said Library, Jamia Hamdard, New Delhi and the Ibn e Sina library, Aligarh

I thank all my friends and seniors for their endearing support and enthusiasm and I regret my inability to name all of them due to the limitation of space. Still, I would like to offer my gratitude to Fakhrey Alam (Tiger), Wasim Akram, Dr. Habib Manzar, Danish (Mahan), Dr. Salim Jawed Akhtar, Salim Zaweed, Sadaf Fatima, Nima Khan, Sana Khan, Md. Shahnawaz, Shakil, Faiz and Shams Tabrez.

The acknowledgements can't be completed without offering my appreciation to Akarsh Shrivastva, Asmita Shrivastva (Mitti), Aziz Faisal, Dr. Younis Iqbal Bhatt and Md. Naushad Ali for their unforgettable and invaluable cooperation during the course of my Ph. D. They always stood behind me and offered their helping hand.

I also thanks to Annie ‘Bhabhi’ and Zakiya ‘Baaji’ for their hospitality and cooperation. At the same time I can’t forget Fatima and Fizza for rendering their unwavering affection and love throughout the tenure of my thesis.

It is a very emotional moment for me to remember my father, Late Mr. Md. Hashim who I wish would have been around to see this thesis. He always inspired me and goaded me on attaining accomplishment.

It gives me immense pleasure to acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to my parents, my wife, Zeenat, my son Ayaan, my brothers Zakir and Afroz and my sisters – Saida, Naila, Nadira and Shabnam who always inspired me to complete my work.

Last but not least I am thankful to my sister in laws Nikhat and Mossarat, specially Nikhat who shared her time with this thesis and took the trouble to sketch the portrait of Late Dr. Iqbal Ghani Khan to whom this thesis is dedicated.

I must confess that all the faults which are there in my thesis are my own for which I take full responsibility.

Mumtaz Alam
