ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In completing the present thesis, I have received support, help and encouragement from my teachers, friends and well wishers.

It gives me immense pleasure in expressing my profound sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Shagufta Imtiaz, for her keen interest, constant encouragement and able guidance in completing this work. Despite her heavy academic and professional engagements, she has been kind enough to give her consent to supervise me and devote considerable time in guiding, reading the manuscript and making valuable suggestions.

Special thanks are also due to Professor S. Nuzhat Zeba, Chairman, Department of English, who has been kind enough in providing me all official assistance.

I am also thankful to Professor S. M. Rizwan Husain, Professor S. Imtiaz Hasnain, Professor Asif Shuja, Dr. Raihan Raza, and Dr. Shaheena Tarannum for their sincere suggestions, concern and best wishes.

It would have been almost impossible for me to carry out the present study without the assistance of the staff members of the Seminar Library of the English Department, Maulana Azad Library, AMU, and the Departmental library of The College of Languages and Translation, King Khalid University, Abha, KSA.

The acknowledgement will remain incomplete without the mention of my husband, Dr. M. Rizwan Khan, who seriously read the thesis and consistently remained a source of inspiration and strength.

Finally I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to Professor P. K.
Abdul Azis, Vice Chancellor, AMU, Aligarh, for providing permission, through the decision of the Academic Council (AMU) to all the ex-research scholars, including me, to submit their thesis within a stipulated period of time. This made us complete the long pending Ph. D thesis.

Naaz Mustafa