ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Research plays an important role in the field of education. Hence for the degree of Ph.D. I feel pleasure to present this thesis.

Since centuries education is making the human being the human. More ever one cannot reach upto the embryo of education by subtracting the human being.

For preparing this thesis, I express gratitude of Dr. Kanubhai R. Patel, who is the experienced guide giving time, insight and unfailing guidance.

I offer my thesis to my father shree Harishchandra whose dream was this and whose motivation cultivated in me more hardwork.

I am thankful to my wife Smt. Unnati Parekh, Due to her company this very difficult work has been incarnate to-day. My sister, Neha Parekh, who remained continuously helpful in my this very difficult work, so I am thankful to her heartily.

I express my thanks to the principals and teachers of the schools of Bharuch, Narmada, Surat, Navsari districts. I am also thankful to the students of those schools who, have filled up my Questionnaire within the proper time period, and various librarians and staff members of the state who helped me in obtaining plentiful literature and material for my study.

Moreover I am thankful to my relatives, friends and shree Pallav Kapadia who helped me in computer work.
