The task of this research was really difficult for me to accomplish without the support, guidance and help of many people. It is good that I have now the great opportunity to express my gratitude for all of them.

First of all, I thank the Almighty who paved the way for me to carry out this research work and provided me enough strength to finish it successfully.

I feel ecstatic to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Bhawdeep Singh, Professor, University School of Business Studies, Talwandi Sabo for his continuous inspiration and valuable guidance as a teacher and as a friend.

I record my sincere thanks with honour for Dr. A.S. Chawla, Professor & Head, School of Management Studies, Punjabi University, Patiala in the accomplishment of this venture and also for the prudential guidance as and when needed.

Without the positive, active and guiding help of Dr. Bhawdeep Singh and Dr. A.S. Chawla, this arduous task would not have been possible.

Special thanks are due to all the respondents who gave their valuable time and effort to fill the questionnaire by sharing their experiences.
Words can't explain my deepest regard and gratitude to my parents, for ignoring my weaknesses and always acting as a shadow during this period. Their noble ideas and positive but tough attitude has come a long way in shaping my destiny. I am thankful to my uncle, Mr. Rajesh Sharma for his moral and spiritual support. My brother Tanuj deserves a special mention because of his undiring support and helping hand, whenever required by me.

My thanks are also due to Mr. Satwinder Singh Nagra for typing the thesis and Mr. Subhash Rahi for his advice in this behalf.

Finally, I feel highly obliged to everyone who has even contributed a bit in the completion of this challenging task, directly or indirectly.
