ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my deepest gratitude to my ever revered supervisor, Professor G. Ram, Department of Sociology, Assam University, Silchar for his honest guidance, constant inspiration, encouragement and valuable advice that has immensely flown in completing this work.

I also express my heartfelt and profound sense of gratitude to my co-supervisor, Prof. Niranjan Roy, Department of Economics, Assam University, Silchar, for his valuable suggestions, kindness and affection that has largely contributed to the execution of this work.

I am thankful to Prof. B.K. Behera, Head, Department of Sociology, Assam University Silchar, for his kind support and to all the teaching and non-teaching staff of the department, for their cooperation and support extended during the course of the work.

I also express my sincere thanks to the people of Borjalenga Development Block for their cooperation with me during the collection of emperical data. Without their cooperation this data based study could not have been made. I also extend my gratitude to my friends and the Gaon Panchayat members, President and Block Development Officer for their support during the field work.

I am thankful to my relatives, Bharati Bhattacharjee, Devasri Bhattacharjee (Goswami) and my best friends Madhumita Ghosh, Sujata Bhattacharjee, Sr. Reeta D’souza for their constant help without their help it was difficult to complete the task within time.

I am also thankful to my research scholar-friends P. G Rongmei, Kanchan Gogoi, Ayesha Afsana, Swapnali Mahanta, Chakradhari Saha and Kankana Nath for their help and support which I received in the course of this work.

I acknowledge the cooperation of the library staff of Assam University, Silchar, Tezpur University, Tezpur, National Library, Kolkata and District Library, Cachar, Silchar during the secondary data collection for the research work.

I acknowledge the cooperation of Mr. Sandeep Choudhury, Mr. Ajoy Roy and Mr. Ranjit Nunia for their constant support during the course of work.

At last, I can’t be oblivious of my indebtedness to my family, especially my Parents, brothers, sister in laws for their constant inspiration and emotional support throughout the work.

Assam University, Silchar

Joydeep Goswami

Date: