Acknowledgements

At the outset, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to my revered Supervisor, Professor Kapil Kapoor for his scholarly guidance, constructive criticism, valuable suggestions and timely advice, which have helped me in the formulation of this work.

Secondly, in the conduct of this work from its initial stage to the final draft I have received help and assistance from various friends: Roland, Priscilla, Lovingson, Margarete, Sowung, Chonchon, Yoyo, Alak and Awor - making fair copies from my scratchings to their beautiful handwritings. Kanaso Shinglai – typing the first three chapters and Mimi Luithui the two Poems. Tennyson, Chihanngam and Homen Singh - type-setting the thesis. Besides, T.Hoping, proprietor, HopCom, Ukhrul – having set aside a computer for typing the first draft. For all these I am equally indebted to them.

Thirdly, I must acknowledge the help I always receive from two people, Mr. Malikji, Liberal, JNU and Rawatji of CLE/SLL&CS in my academic pursuit in JNU.

Fourthly, I must express my thanks sincerely to my friend, Wonchan Ramsan for having stood by me through thick and thin. And my thanks also go to Krishan Singh and Deepak Ahlawat for their last minute assistance and cooperation shown to me.

Only now, as my studentship comes to an end with this, in the real sense of the term, I come to realise the strong backing I have all these years from my mother, brothers, sisters, sister- in-laws, nephews, nieces and my Hungyo clansmen for which I am grateful.

Every effort, in fact, has been made to acknowledge the people who helped me in the completion of this work. Omissions if any are unintended and regretted.

July, 2002

H. Shimreingam