The present study has been completed under the supervision of Prof. (Dr.) G. C. Maheshwari, Professor in Finance and Accounting, Faculty of Management Studies, the M. S. University of Baroda, Baroda. I am greatly obliged for his valuable guidance in completing this study. In fact there are no words to express my gratitude to Prof. (Dr.) G. C. Maheshwari, for the intellectual discussion, valuable suggestions, encouragement in moulding the work in the present format. Without his personal involvement, warmth of affection and whole hearted dedication I would not have completed the present study. I am indeed, greatly indebted to him. I am also grateful to Ms. Maheshwari who provided moral support like a mother.

I am also obliged to Prof. (Dr.) K. Pushpanadham, Associate Professor, Faculty of Education and Psychology, M. S. University Baroda, Vadodara for supportive and kind co-operation throughout the duration of the study by accommodating my requests even at his inconvenience. I am grateful to Prof. Alla Subba Rao, Professor, Department of Economics, M. S. University Baroda, Baroda for clarifying and fine-tuning the statistical issues related to the study.

My sincere thanks to the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) and data feed staff members for providing required data for the study and their kind cooperation throughout the duration of the study. I also thankful to Librarian, Shrimati Hansa Mehta Library and Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad for permitting use of the library throughout my work for referring valuable materials and collecting data from various sources.
Last but not the least, the role of my family members has indeed been very crucial for the successful completion of the work. I am especially thankful to my parents, my wife, my daughter and my son for the moral support and meaningful cooperation and every sacrifice which remained crucial for the successful completion of the work.

Rahul Vasudevbhais Vyas