ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Acknowledgement and celebration are essential to fuelling passion, making people feel valid and valuable, and giving the team a real sense of progress that makes it all worthwhile. ….. Divight Frindt

Ph.D. project is a both painful and enjoyable experience. It’s just like climbing a high peak, step by step, accompanied with bitterness, hardships, frustration, encouragement and trust and with so many people’s kind help. Now, when I find myself almost there, enjoying the beautiful scenery, I realize that it was, in fact, teamwork that got me there. Though it will not be enough to express my gratitude in words to all those people who helped me, I would still like to give my many, many thanks to all these people.

“A teacher affects eternity; her influence never stops”. Had it not been the love painstaking personal attention to details, vigilance, guidance and constant support of my Guide Dr. Kavita Marriya, former Principal and Head Clothing and Textiles Dept. Govt. Home science College, Chandigarh, my work would not have seen today’s glory. I am deeply indebted to her for her encouragement, her confidence in me and unflinching support that showed me the path towards perfection. She is someone you will instantly love and never forget once you meet her. She’s one of the smartest people I know. I hope that I could be as lively, enthusiastic, and energetic as her and to someday be able to command an audience as well as she can.

It is my privilege and honour to express my most heartfelt thanks to Dr. Radha Kashyap, Head, Dept. of Fashion and Textile Technology, The IIS University, Jaipur, and my Co-guide who in spite of the distance involved guided me at every step. She was always available even at odd hours through phone and e-mail when I needed her. Her sentence, „Don’t worry, all will be done” and with her continuous motivation and guidance I have been able to accomplish the task.

Words cannot fathom the depth of gratitude that my heart is filled with to be associated with IIS University. I would like to thank all at the college for providing me with sound academic background which helped me successfully completing my Thesis. I would like to thank Dr. Rakhi Gupta, Registrar and the PhD Research Committee headed by Dr. N. k. Jain who helped me find path when I found myself lost.

I shall be failing in my duties if I do not record my admiration and gratitude to my teachers, Mrs Madhu Nanda, Principal, Mrs Jatinder Sohi, Mrs Sangeeta Deewan, Associate Professors, Government Home Science College, Chandigarh for their support and critical appreciation and providing valuable suggestions during the course of study. They were ready to dispel doubts and clarify concepts on various aspects during my study.

My thanks are due to my panel of Judges Heena, Expecting mother-lecturer, Govt. HSc. college, Navdeep, Mother of an infant, Asst. Professor, NIIFT, Dr Paramjit, Paediatrician, Govt.hospital-16, Dr Swami Dass, Dermatologist, Govt.hospital-16, Ms. Milwant Brar, Kids wear Designer, Cotton Candy- Brand, Ms. Jatinder Sohi, Clothing and textiles expert, Govt. HSc .college, Mr.Vishav Bandhu, Expert on behalf of the industry, GM-DIC/Director, NIIFT.

I am indebted and thankful to Dr. Tomar, Ex Director KVIC, and a dear friend without whose undoubted belief in my calibre regarding promoting Khadi, I would have never been able to take the plunge.

I could have never imagined the shape of my work as it is today without the painstaking efforts and never-ending support of Mr. Rajinder Sharma, with whom I fought like children when the work could not be done my way.

My thanks are due to all the people who made this research possible. Officers of KVIC, KVIB, Library staff of Banasthali Vidyapith, NIIFT, NID, PAU, Home Science College, Punjab University, Lady Erwin College, Staff of testing laboratory Ludhiana for fabric testing, Staff of Prerna designs for fabrication of the garments

I would have never been able to complete my work without the help of Dr Sangeeta, Head of Department, Statistics, Punjab University and Dr Ruby, the Statistical Analyst, without whose help, the results could have not been compiled. Ms Prabhjot, my colleague who stood beside me in good and bad. Navdeep and Diksha, wonderful friends.
I am greatly beholden to my little children, Prerna and Karan, for showing patience and happily accepting the delays in food when they were hungry and giving me all the love and the strength to carry on, when I felt weak.

Love of the family is the life’s greatest blessing, and I have it. My work would have not been possible without the blessings of my parents, my mother in law, Ritu didi, Vandoo, Saurabh and my dear Asha didi. Last but not the least I am grateful to Param, my husband without whose love, care and consideration, I could have not been able to complete my thesis.

“LOVE gives the faith and strength to transform impossible into possible.”

Thank you God
