"The Lord is my shepherd, I shall want nothing!"

(Psalm 23:1, The Holy Bible)

At the outset, I humbly bow before the Almighty God with gratitude, for having granted me the opportunity to do this research, providing me with all that I have been in need of and giving me strength to serve the humanity at every phases of my life through this research.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Ison V Vanchipurackal, for his academic commitment, patient guidance, constant encouragement and diligent advice throughout my research. I have been extremely privileged to have a supervisor who cared so much about my work and who responded to my questions and queries so promptly. I also acknowledge with gratitude the affection and hospitality shown by his family during my research work.

I owe a special gratitude to His Excellency Mar Jacob Muricken, Manager, St. Thomas College, Palai for providing necessary facilities to carry out my research. I also would like to express my sincere gratitude to Rev. Dr. James John Mangalathu, Principal, St. Thomas College, Palai for supporting to carry out my research in a meaningful and fruitful manner. I thankfully remember the former Principals for their kind support. I express my deep sense of gratitude to the former Heads of the Department of Physics, Dr. Michael Augustine and Dr. Simon Augustine and faculty members, Dr. Ginson P. Joseph, Mr. Libin Kuriakose, Mr. Augustine J. Edakkara, Dr. Sr. Ann Mathew SH, Dr. Jobin Job Mathen, Dr. Geo Philip M. and also the non-teaching staff for the help they rendered during the entire period of my research study. I extend sincere thanks to Dr. R. Vinayakan for his constant support and always being available with his comments and suggestions for the improvement and development of the present work.

I remember with gratitude all my teachers in the Department of Physics, Nirmala College Muvattupuzha, Newman College Thodupuzha, especially Dr. Joe Jacob and Loyola College Chennai, especially Dr. Joe Jesudurai and Dr. Victor Antony Raj for their kind support and motivations. I would also like to acknowledge all the teachers who taught me since my childhood. I would not have been here without their guidance, blessings and inspirations.

I would like to thank my research-lab-mates Mr. Ajith Thomas and Mrs. Anju Elsa Tom for their timely help, support and suggestions which made my work easier and a better one. I gratefully remember all my fellow researchers, Mr. Sebastian Thomas, Mr. Tom Thomas, Ms. Bincy Joseph, Mrs. Neenu Thomas, Ms. Soumya, Mr. Prince Thomas, Mrs. Jilu Topsy, Mr. Jincemon Cyriac, Mrs. Sherin Philip, Ms. Linta, Mr. Vivek and my scholar-friends for their moral support and motivation which helped me to bring the best in me.

I am highly indebted to Fr. Bharathi Bernadsha SDB who has been encouraging me and corrected my manuscripts even in the midst of his tight schedule. I remember with gratitude the constant support and timely help rendered by my brothers, Bro. Michaelraj SJ and Mr. Dintomon Joy, all throughout my research work. I sincerely thank Mother Provincial and sisters, CMC Jayamatha Province, Palai for providing me a pleasant, conducive environment and support for completing my research.

With deep and unconditional love, I am indebted to my dear parents Mr. N.D. Jose and Mrs. Rosamma Jose and my beloved family members Mr. Sinto, Mrs. Anju and Irene, for all the prayers and sacrifices they have made for me. I am sure that during all my struggles and tireless difficult times, their love, constant support and encouragement strengthened me so much.

I gratefully acknowledge University JRF and Aspire Scholarship that made my Ph.D. work possible.

Last, but by no means least, this thesis would not have been possible without the confidence, endurance and support of my Congregation and beloved Sisters. Thank you for always being there for me, understanding me and also revealing God's plan for me and leading me through that path to its realization. I owe my deepest gratitude towards Mother Navya Maria CMC, Provincial Superior and Sr. Devotia CMC (Ex-Provincial and present Education Councilor) for their boundless support, guidance and valuable advice.

I dedicate all my time, energy that I spent for the fruitful completion of my research to " Congregation of Carmel"- my Mother.
