CONTENTS

Certificate from the Guide

Declaration of the Scholar

Acknowledgement

List of Tables

Chapter – I: Introduction

Statement of the problem

Objectives of the Research

Significance of the problem

Hypothesis

Review of literature

Chapterization

Methodology and Source Material

Chapter – II: Early Migrant groups into Colonial Assam

(A Study on the migration of the Bengalis, the Marwaris and the Tea Garden Labourers)

Section – A: Early phase of the Bengali migration into Assam.

Section – B: Migration of the Marwari traders

Section – C: Tea Garden Labourers

Chapter – III: Migration of Farm Cultivators from East Bengal

The Question of Waste Land Settlement in Assam and a comparison of the population Growth of and amount of Waste lands in Assam proper and Eastern Bengal

Early phase of the East Bengali migration into Assam
The Line System and Legislative Resolution for restriction of immigration into Assam

Communalization of the Line System and Demands for its Abolition

The Line System Committee Report of February, 1938

Land Settlement Resolutions during the premiership of Muhammad Saadulla (1939 – 1945)

Communalization of the issue of Eviction

Chapter – IV: The Assamese Middle Class and Roots of Assamese Sub Nationalism

Genesis of the Assamese Middle Class

Assamese Sub Nationalism and its causes

Assamese Sub Nationalists: Ambikagiri Ray Chaudhuri, Jnananath Bora, Kamalakanta Bhattacharya, and others

Chapter – V: Summary and Conclusion

General Aspects of migration into colonial Assam

Regions from where migration took place into colonial Assam

The Nepali migrants

Migration and demographic changes

Occupational dominance of the immigrants

Immigration and the process of Assimilation

Research Findings

Bibliography

Appendix

A: Statistics of Assam. 1853.

B: A petition by the pleaders, Mauzadars, Manduls, Gossains, Dolye Bar Dawry, and Private Man of Lower Assam to the Lieutenant Governor of Bengal requesting the non imposition of the ‘Upper Assam dialect’ as the court language and the medium of instructions in the schools of Assam in lieu of Bengali.
C: Name of the Mauzas and villages which were included within the colonization scheme in the district of Nowgong in 1928-29. 371-372

D: Statement showing the increase in the population of the Muslims and other communities in Assam from 1911 to 1941. 373

Glossary 374-376

Maps