ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This thesis has been possible by the help of many people from India and Thailand.
I gratefully acknowledge them.

I express my feelings of immense gratitude and indebtedness to my esteemed supervisor Prof. Karuna Chanana for her constructive supervision, constant support, scholarly guidance, and understanding of my academic and personal life. Her analytical aptitude, scientific temperament, and constructive criticism helped me to overcome many hurdles during this long journey. I owe a lot for her genuine concern, cooperation, and valuable suggestions during the study. I proud privilege to work under her and belief that I will stand in gateway throughout of my life, also I will help others people as she had done for her students and me.

I take this opportunity to extend my thanks of Mr. Paitun and Mrs. Achla-Pron Kaew-Thong, Khunying Dhipavadee Meksawan (Secretary-General to Office of the Civil Service Commission), Mr. M.K.Lokesh (Joint Secretery to the Government of India and Deputy Director General, Indian Council for Cultural Relations, Ministry of External Affairs), Mr. Shankar Bose (Deputy Director, Indian Council of Social Science Research, Ministry of Human Resource Development), Dr. Charuaypron Toranin, Dr. Rung Kaewdang, The National Primary Education Commission of Thailand, Mr. Montean Naktongin, Mr. Nuparat pimjura, Mrs. Punnee Niumtanom, Mr. Manee Muchima, teachers and students of SSUS, DSRS, APUS and TPRS in Suphumburi and Phichit Provinces for their support, keen interest in my work, and cooperation of this thesis.

My debt of gratitude to Dr. Renu Malaviya (Reader and Head, Department of Education, Lady Irwin College), Ms. Binalakshmi Nepram, Mr. Anil Kumar (Programmer, Data Archives, ICSSR) and Mr. Dhruva Pratim Sharma for their thoughtful review of the entire thesis from time to time and serious concerns.
