ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First of all, I express my deep sense of gratitude to my respectable supervisor Dr. G.S. Bhalla, Professor, Department of Commerce and Business Management, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for his invaluable guidance throughout the period of this research work. It would not be an exaggeration for me to say that but for his critical and analytical guidance, this piece of work would not have seen the light of the day. Undoubtedly, he has always been available for his support and has been a source of guidance and inspiration to me in collecting, compiling and analyzing the research material and the data required for completion of this piece of research.

I am also thankful to Dr. Balwinder Singh, Head of the Department of Commerce and Business Management, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for providing me with all the facilities and assistance required in completion of this research work.

I am thankful to Mr. Sushendra Kumar Mishra, Head, Department of Finance and Accounts, Punjab Technical University for his help in the supply of relevant data and information relating to the finances of the university.

My thanks are due to Dr. Abhishekh Aggarwal, Head, Department of Geography, Hindu College, Amritsar for assisting me in the data analyses of this study.

Last, but not the least, I am indebted to all the members of my family for their encouragement and unstinted moral and psychological support.
