CONTENTS

Introduction.

Chapter 1: Historical Background.

Chapter 2: Tilak’s Critique on Women’s Emancipation and women’s Education.

(a) Tilak’s opposition to High School Education for Women.

(b) Tilak’s evaluation of Educated Women: Rakmabai and Pandita Ramabai.

(c) Tilak’s ideas on Women’s Education during Home Rule League Period.

Chapter 3: Rural Indebtedness and Tilak’s defense of Landed Interests

(a) The Deccan Riots of 1876.

(b) Tilak’s attitude towards the Deccan Agriculturists Relief Act and Agricultural Bank.

(c) The Famines of 1896-1900.

(d) Tilak’s attitude towards the Big Land holders – Inamdars and Khots.

Chapter 4: Tilak’s opposition to Education and Non-Brahmin Empowerment

(a) Tilak’s opposition to Mass education.

(b) Ganapati and Shivaji festivals: The Negation of Phule’s Cultural Revolt.

(c) The Vedoka Controversy.

(a) Early efforts in Muslim Education in Bombay Presidency.

(b) The Construction of ‘the otherness’, Belgaum and Bombay Riots.

(c) The Consolidation of ‘the otherness’ - Yeola and Poona Riots.
Chapter 6: Constructing the Hindu Nationality as against Indian Nationality: Phase I The Swadeshi Movement.

(a) Tilak's concept of Swaraj.
(b) Tilak's ideas on National Education.
(c) The Formation of Muslim League.
(d) Swadeshi and Boycott.
(e) The Bombay Textile Strike and Surat split.

Chapter 7: Constructing the Hindu Nationality as against Indian Nationality: Phase II The Home Rule League Movement.

(a) The Construction of Hindu Nationality.
(b) The Home Rule League Movement and non-Brahmin opposition.
(c) National Education.
(d) Tilak's Legacy.

Conclusion.

Glossary.

Bibliography.