Acknowledgements

The academic endeavour of mine would not have become reality without the cooperation extended to me by a number of people at different stages of the work.

My first and foremost gratitude goes to my supervisor Dr. Anuradha Banerjee. I am deeply indebted to her for her meticulous guidance, sustained advice, constant encouragement and support. Above all, she had been a great source of inspiration and had always introduced me to fresh, new and contemporary developments in the subject. It is difficult to express adequately my gratitude to her.

I hereby take the opportunity to acknowledge the Centre for the Study of Regional Development for giving me the platform to conduct this research. I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the faculties of our centre, as I have been greatly benefited by their valuable comments, sincere suggestions and constructive criticisms on my work. In this regard I am specially thankful to Professor Sudesh Nangia, Professor P.M. Kulkarni, Professor Saraswati Raju, Professor Aslam Mahmood, Professor R.K. Sharma, Dr. Sucharita Sen and Dr. Milap Chand Sharma. I also like to acknowledge the valuable help rendered by Mr. Verghese, Mr. Selvam and Shish Kaur for computer data analysis.

I am grateful to the University Grants Commission for awarding me Junior and Senior Research Fellowships to pursue my Ph.D. work. This work would have been incomplete without their financial support. I also gratefully acknowledge the help and co-operation rendered by various agencies and departments of the Government of Jharkhand, particularly the Municipal Corporation of the Ranchi City and Ranchi Regional Development Authority.

I would like to express my indebtedness to C. Chakravarti, Joint Director of the Office of the Registrar General of India for kindly permitting me to obtain data for my research. I am also thankful to the librarians and staff members of National Institute of Urban Affairs, Institute of Economic Growth, Ratan Tata Library of Delhi School of Economics, JNU Library and CSRD Documentation Unit for their constant cooperation and help.

My special thanks also go to Dr. Ram Kumar Tiwari, Reader of Jagannath Nagar College, Ranchi, for giving me valuable information regarding Ranchi City. I gratefully acknowledge Dr. Jayshree Sahadev, of Department of Geography/Ranchi University, for her valuable suggestions.
