......To my mentors

Dr. Lalji Singh

Dr. K. Thangaraj

......who not only guided me for my doctorate but also showed the path to determination, enthusiasm, innovation, and moreover excellence.
A special tribute to my supervisors;

Gone are the days when we used to discuss in the late night
Gone are the days when the schedules were so tight
Gone are the days when we used to cherish the coffee
Gone are the days when for anything stuck you were the jockey
Gone are the days when I was blessed with your company
Gone are the days when at every difficulty you used to accompany
Gone are the days when you taught everything one by one
Gone are the days when each day many plans were done
Gone are the days when I enjoyed each success with you
Gone are the days when your each tip was as pure as dew
Gone are the days when you used to “shake hand” while ‘shaking hand’
Gone are the days when our relations was more like a friend
Gone are the days when I was with my “Guru” at CCMB

But....

Still, there are times when I am proud to say your name
There are moments when I am pleased to hear your fame
I would try to be a part of CCMB if there is an opportunity
May God return the days when your company would again add to my dignity!
