ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words often fail to express one’s feeling and indebtedness. It is a matter of great pleasure for me to express my indebtedness to a number of individuals and organization for their help, guidance, co-operation, continuous encouragement and comments during my study period. It is a matter of immense pleasure for me to place on record my deepest sense of gratitude to Dr. Sumanash Dutta, Professor, Department of Economics, Assam University, Silchar for his tireless guidance, valuable supervision, meticulous attention, affectionate reprimands and perceptive suggestions without which the study would have not been completed.

I express my confound sense of gratitude to office staff of all the RD blocks of North Tripura, for allowing me to access data on Health status and for their valuable suggestions. I owe my indebtedness to the District statistical officer and Chief Medical Officer of my study District for their valuable information during the collection of secondary data. I express my gratitude to all the doctors and nurses for their kind cooperation and suggestions to conduct this study. Admittedly it would not be possible to complete the difficult task within the time limit without their help. I express my sincere thanks to the NRHM employs of the district for rendering necessary information, assistance and cooperation during secondary data collection related to health. I wish to pass on my sincere thanks to all the panchayat secretaries and members who assisted me during primary data collection. Finally I also value in great measure the cooperation extended by the respondents who spare their time and answer the questions with patience.
I express my gratitude to all the teachers of Department of Economics, Assam University for their objective guidance and valuable suggestions made wherever necessary.

I also wish to pass on my sincere thanks to all the scholars of Assam University as well as scholars of Worldwide whose valuable works have been consulted and drawn upon during the entire study period. The blessings of information technology are highly acknowledged through which much information, data and study materials were gathered.

No height is ever achieved without some sacrifice made at some end and it is here where I owe a special debt to my family, especially to my parents, brothers and sisters for tolerating my single minded schedule and still showing their generous love throughout this period of time. I wish to render my immense gratitude especially to my brother-in-law Mr Manisena Sinha for his moral and financial support throughout my entire academic career.

I cannot in full measure, reciprocate the kindness shown and contribution made by various persons specially Sumita Sinha, Dr. Harendra Sinha, Dr. Bibhas Rajkumar, Sujoy Das, Monojit Das, Muzharul Islam Akond and Chinmoy Deb in this endeavor. I am thankful to all my friends for their valuable suggestions and constructive criticisms made wherever necessary. I shall remember them with gratitude.

Finally, I deeply obliged to the family members of my supervisor especially my Sister Kathakali Dutta and Medam Smt Champakali Dutta Sen for their warm welcome, hospitality and boosting words whenever I visited.
