ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

May I take this opportunity to express my gratitude and thanks to one and all, who have helped me a lot in this effort. First and foremost is my Guide Prof. Dr. U.T. Damayanthi. Right from the beginning, when the research proposal was made, she encouraged, intervened and corrected so that I have come to this stage of the work; thank you teacher, thank you very much.

I express my thanks to Prof. Dr. K.R. Lakshmi Devi, Head, Department of Economics, Dr. John Matthai Centre, University of Calicut. I also thank Prof. K.P. Mani, Department of Cooperation and Banking, Kerala Agricultural University for having read the entire dissertation more than once and pointed out the required corrections. Prof. Dr. D.P. Nair, former Head of the Department of Economics, Dr. John Matthai Centre, University of Calicut was instrumental in getting me registered as a part time research scholar. I express my sincere thanks to him. All other teachers in the Department of Economics were also of much help to me, because they were available and could be consulted whenever required. I thank the administrative staff of the Dept. of Economics, Dr. John Matthai Centre for their sincere help.

Younger Research Scholars in the Department, Mr. T.D. Simon and Miss. M. Sindhu also had helped me a lot in the computation and analysis. Mr. Simon is the one who did everything connected with computer; sincere thanks to both of them not only for the help but also for the friendship, which they extended to me.

It was my friend Mr. C.P. James, who compelled me to get registered as a part time research scholar and it was he who took me to Dr John Matthai Centre for consultations with the Head and other teachers. I express my gratitude to him.

Management of St. Aloysius College Elthuruth was of great help to me. I express my thanks to Fr. Dr. Jose Pellissery, Former Principal, Rev. Fr. Pauly Thazhathu, the Manager and Fr. Thomas Chakramakkal, the Principal for the encouragement and support that they extended to me. I also remember with love and respect late Rev. Fr. Antony Thattil, Former Principal, St Aloysius College. He used to encourage me very much.
My friend Pious Kurian and my brother Sunny Thomas, who took all the pain to help me to conduct the family survey, also deserve special mention. The Principals of St Thomas Higher Secondary School, Pala, St Mary’s H.S.S. Pala, St Augustine’s H.S.S. Ramapruam, St Antony’s H.S.S., Plassanal, St John’s N.H.S.S. Kozhuvanal, Holy Cross H.S.S. Cherumpikal, St Sebastian’s H.S.S. Koodaranji, Sacred Heart H.S.S. Thiruvampady and Teachers Ms. Maria Shaji, Sudheesh, Santhosh Augustine, Reji Mathew, Nimmy and Shibly Joseph also had helped me a lot in conducting the family survey. All of them are remembered with gratitude.

Mr. C.K.Sivaraman, Manager, Deputy Commissioner’s Office (Sales Tax), Palghat and Ms. Lalitha Sivaraman, Sales Tax Officer introduced me to many officers in the Department of Agricultural Income Tax. This helped me a lot in the data collection from the offices. I thank Mr. V. Somasekharan, IAS, Commissioner of Taxation for permitting me to visit and collect data on Agricultural Income Tax from offices all over the state.

Mr John Thomas of Rubber Board, Kottayam, Mr. Nareshkumar of NABARD, Trivandrum and Mr. Sabu of Spices Board were very much helpful in collecting data.

Librarians of Dr. John Matthai Centre, KILA, Spices Board Kochi, College of Co-operation and Banking, Vellanikkara, Department of Horticulture, Vellanikkara, Kerala Agricultural University, Thrissur, CDS, Legislative Assembly Thiruvananthapuram also had helped me much. I thank Mr. Pauly Manjaly of M/s. Educare Infotech, Thrissur for the beautiful printing works.

Prof. C.V.Joseph, Former Head of the Department of Economics of St. Aloysius College also is mentioned with deep sense of love and gratitude. I owe much to all my friends in the Department of Economics, St. Aloysius College, Elthuruth.

There are some others whose sacrifices nourish every inch of my movement forward. But I do not express my feeling towards them because I want it to be with me always.

Johnson Thomas
