ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am extremely delighted to convey my sincerest thanks and gratitude to Dr. Alak Bhattacharya, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Tripura University, without whose guidance and help, this thesis work would not have been possible. It is entirely his greatness and sublimity to accept me as a research fellow, which turned to be the most rewarding experience of my life.

I am overwhelmed to express my gratitude to all the Faculty Members of the Department of Political Science, Tripura University for their kind support and continuous cooperation. I am also grateful to my teachers of the Department of Political Science of Aligarh Muslim University, especially, Professor Subramunium, Professor Nizami, Professor M.A Kishore and others who have created thirst of research in me during my Post Graduate study over there and enriched me providing valuable inputs in distance.

I owe my special thanks to Development Officers / Deputy Collectors / Extension Officers / Leaders of different political parties of Dukly, Melaghar and Jampuijala Blocks for their heartfelt support at the time of conducting in field study in different Gaon Panchayats. Their advice and encouragement contributed a lot to the quality of this work. I am also thankful to them for providing information in relation to the governance of panchayat raj by women and also for helping me to conduct interview with different political and beneficiary personnel under their respective jurisdictions.

I gladly express my thanks to all those elected female members of different Gaon Panchayats, who responded to the set questionnaire and queries. I gratefully remember their support of sparing valuable times as and when requested.

It will be an injustice if I do not remain grateful to a variety of offices and institutions like Tripura University Library, Department of Panchayat Raj / Office of the Election Commission / Office of the Sub-Divisional Magistrate/ Office of the Block development Officers and Department of Rural Development, Govt. of Tripura, , Tripura State Library,
News Agencies etc. for their whole hearted support by providing necessary documents/reports and other records of information etc.

I do feel pleasure to acknowledge the contribution of some young friends and graduates like Mr. Habij Uddin, Md. Masum Billa, S. M Mijanur Rahman, Sahparan Uddin, Jahirul Uddin and others who helped me a lot to collect secondary documents/first hand information/primary data from the field through open handed questionnaire and while analyzing, typing and graphically designing those in computer.

I also like to make a special mention of all those reputed intellectuals/writers/academicians/elders, whose works/thoughts, I have studied/reviewed/consulted/quoted and referred in my thesis.

Finally, I feel extreme love and affection to all members of my family especially my son Md. Nisar Uddin and daughter Miss Maria Noor whom I could not entertain enough during my excessive involvement in the thesis and of course my very beloved wife Mrs. Seema Aktar for her passionate support and active cooperation to carry out the research work with an enthusiastic and thoughtful mind.
