ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Writing an acknowledgement is a difficult exercise, mostly because of inadequacy of words. However, it is the only way I can record my sense of gratitude to numerous people who in so many ways have helped me for successful completion of this work. I apologise if I haven’t been able to do justice to the people who slipped out of my mind inadvertently.

First of all, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to my esteemed guide and supervisor, Dr. P. Sahadevan, for his valuable guidance. It would have been difficult for me to complete this work without his constant supervision and guidance.

I am thankful to the faculty of South Asian Studies Division. I am especially thankful to Prof. Mahendra P. Lama, who taught that tensions are part of life but one has to move on, in life. Prof. Uma Singh advised that one should not waste time on the things that don’t deserve me. Like a elder brother Dr. Sanjay Bhattacharjee helped me in whatever the ways he can to me, during the time when I was going through a very low phase in life. I am also thankful to the non-teaching staff of the division, Mr. P. S. Chahar, Mrs. Asha Sharma and Mrs. Usha Kapoor.

I wish to express my thanks to authorities and staff members of Jawaharlal Nehru University library, Teen Murthi Museum and library, Institute of Defence Studies and Analysis, and High Commission of Sri Lanka, for their generosity and assistance in providing me access to their libraries and other information. Besides I would like to thank the National Peace Council of Sri Lanka, CIDA, ICRC, CARE, OXFAM and UNHCR’s officials in Sri Lanka, in getting me access to the literature related to my work.

My special thanks to Prof. Kadam, Ms. Suneeta Chatterjee, ICRC New Delhi. I am thankful to Ms. Kalai Maghal, the Rama Krishna Mission people, Colombo, Sri Lanka, Mr. Ganesan, Mr. Raghunath Pillai (Government Agent and Additional Government Agent, Vavuniya) and Dr. Jehan Perera for their hospitality during my stay in Sri Lanka.

I express my honest and sincere gratitude to Prof. G. K. Chaddha, Prof. Ayesha Kidwai, and Dr. Mahalakshmi for taking care of me during the most devastating period in my life. I am thankful to Mr. D. Krishna Rao and Meenu Aunty for being with me all the time.

I owe my greatest appreciation to my seniors Dr. P. V. Ramana and Dr. Saurabh for their valuable advice. Mr. S.R. Seelam’s meticulous policy in every aspect made me look life from a different perspective. I am grateful for him for the support and help that he lent me during the toughest time in my life.

Words are ineffable for the unstinted support showered by my adorable senior Dr. N. Manoharan, for always being ready to extend his willingness to help me at any moment, personally and academically. He was a constant source of support and strength to me. I am grateful for his support and encouragement. Thalaiva, Dr. Sundara Babu’s scolding compelled me to check the draft thrice before taking the final print. I am appreciative of his timely help and advice. In spite of his busy schedule he made it a point to keep his promise.

My heartfelt thanks to Dr. D.V. Rao and Dr. Lakshmi for their care, concern and warmth all through the time. Their moral support and constant encouragement made me feel at ease and enabled me to cope up with the ups and downs in life.

My heartfelt thanks to Ena, Parimal Anubhuti, Rosmin, Rohit Albeena, Sona, and Mona Das for their care, concern and support all through during the most turbulent phase in my life. My friends Dr. Ramani and Dr. Theso Kropi took care of me like elder sisters and were supportive all through.

It is worthwhile to appreciate the co-operation extended by my friends and well-wishers, Sima, Arti, Mandavi, Ruchi, Manjusha, Puja, Deepika, Subha, Pramod, Nandita, Satya, Harish, and Priti, who wished and prayed that always good should happen to me. I thank Madhavi for timely help.

Dhiru and Yadav Bhaiyaa filled the absence of my brother and never allowed me, to feel that I am alone. In fact, it’s a blessing in disguise to be with them. I am obliged for their help and support. At this juncture I would like to thank my friend Uma and her husband D.V.N Reddy for their constant support and encouragement.

My long time friend, a close confidant and companion Dr. Abhimanyu’s support buoyed me all through the tensions in life. I am thankful to his parents Shri Arjun Chaudhury and Smt. Shanti Devi. I render my thanks to Dr. Awadesh Kumar and Rinku for their care and concern. Sushma was one of the nicest persons that I have come across in my life, to share, to discuss and debate.

My sincere thanks goes to Mr. Ranjit Sinha for his help and moral support. Four people: Mr. S. Venkat Narayan, Prof. Shantha Sinha, Mr. Satish Chandra Misra and Mr. Rajendra Sharma, without whose support and encouragement my survival would have been very difficult. I appreciate their concern and humanitarian gesture. I thank Ujjain Swami Shri Parushurama Shastri for his care and concern.

A special word of thanks to Mr. Arthur Monteiro for editing and proof reading. I am thankful to Kaushal Bhaiya of Mala Graphics for his advice and type setting.

Finally, I express my gratitude to my parents Smt. V. Vijaya Lakshmi and Shri V. Venkateshwarlu for being a constant source of inspiration and encouragement. They heared everything, just because of me, being their daughter. I am grateful to them for bearing all my tantrums with patience and humbleness.
