ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I take this opportunity to place in record my indebtedness to Dr. U.C.Singh, Professor and Head, School of Studies in Earth Science, Jiwaji University, Gwalior for his excellent guidance, advice, constant encouragement and valuable suggestions throughout the tenure of investigations.

I am obliged to Dr. A.S.Dave, former Prof. and Head, School of Studies in Geology, Pt. R.S.Shukla University Raipur for creative encouragement.

I am highly obliged to Dr. G.S.Parashar, Professor and Head and all my other colleagues, viz. Prof. T.P.Paikra, Mr. P.Thakur, Mr. R.Shridhar, Mr. P.S.Gour, Dr. Rajiv Guhey and Miss Pushpa Jatwa of Geology department, Govt. College of Science Raipur (M.P.), for their sincere advice and kind cooperation in severalways.

Deep appreciation is expressed to Mr. N.K.Dutta Sr. Geologist, and Mr. Biplob Chatterjee Jr. Geologist, G.S.I. M.P. Circle III, Raipur, for their constructive suggestions and cooperations in the preparation of hydro-geological maps.

Special thanks are due to Mr. P.N.Singh, Geophysicist and Mr. P.L.Singh, State Groundwater board, Raipur for their discussions on the geophysical and groundwater problems of the area.
I am highly thankful to Mr. S.K.Newle, Mr. J.Pashine and Mr. R.Srikant, DGM, for their generous assistance in photomicrography. Valuable assistance provided by Shri Prashant Kawishwar, Scientist, in all types of problems related to remote sensing, is sincerely acknowledged. Great appreciations are due to Dr. A.S.R.A.S. Sastri and Mr. J.L.Choudhary, Deptt. of Physics and Agro-meteorology, IGGV, Raipur for providing meteorological data and assistance in solving various meteorological problems.

Cordial thanks are expressed to Mr. S.K.Tiwari, Chemist, Agrawal Cement Plant, Tilda (Neora) for their help in conducting the chemical analyses of groundwater. Thanks are also due to Mr. R.Singh, Development Officer, LIC, Tilda and his family for providing necessary facilities during my stay and work in the field.

I am also obliged to Mr. R.S.Sahu, for his unfailing assistance in the cartographic work.

In the work of this nature, it is very difficult to acknowledge all those persons who have extended their all possible help to me. However, I would like to extend the deepest appreciation to my elder brothers Mr. K.K.Singh and Mr. R.K.Singh for their moral support in my research work. I am highly overwhelmed with the patience and courage shown by my wife Mrs. Anjali Singh and sons Master Shivendra Singh and Nitish Singh throughout tenure of the research work as well as whole hearted cooperation and spritual support.

Lastly, but not the least, I wish to express my sincere thanks to Mr. Subhash Roy for his careful and neat typing of the manuscript.
