ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With immense pleasure, I record my profound regards and deep sense of gratitude to my Supervisor, Dr V. A. Srinivasan, Ph.D., Research Director, Indian Immunologicals Limited for his inspiring guidance, great motivation, constant encouragement and valuable suggestions at every stage of my research work, which helped me to set the pace for my project. Without his vision, support and mentorship my doctoral aspirations would come to a naught. I owe my deepest gratitude to him.

I record my thankfulness to Dr K.R.S Sambasiva Rao Ph.D., Professor and Chairman, BOS in Biotechnology, Acharya Nagarjuna University for his motivation and support of all kind extended during the course of this study to conquer my dream of completion of Ph.D.

I am highly indebted to Shri K. V. Balasubramaniam, Managing Director, Indian Immunologicals Limited and the Management of Indian Immunologicals Limited for the permission and support to pursue the doctoral degree. My thanks are due to Dr K. Anand kumar, DMD, Indian Immunologicals Limited for extending the services to pursue my research work.
I am highly grateful to Dr. Ramesh Matur, GM, R&D department, Indian Immunologicals Limited for his constant support, encouragement and extending the facilities for my successful completion.

I thank Dr P. Sudhakar, Ph.D., Co-ordinator, Dept of biotechnology, Acharya Nagarjuna University for his valuable help during my research.

I am highly indebted to Dr T. Nagarajan and Dr B. Mohana Subramanian, Manager who were more of a mentor and well-wisher all through my tenure of research work. I owe the deepest of my gratitude for their constant motivation, understanding, encouragement, optimism and moral support to help me accomplish my goal.

I would like to thank, Late Dr D. Thiagarajan, Ph.D., Manager, R&D department, Indian Immunologicals Limited; he put me the faith in pursuing doctoral studies while on the job.
