C O N T E N T S

LIST OF TABLES  ..  ..  ..  ..  i-viii
LIST OF GRPHS  ..  ..  ..  ..  ix
LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS  ..  ..  ..  ..  x-xi

Chapter–I : INTRODUCTION  ..  ..  ..  ..  1-48

Chapter-II : OBJECTIVES AND METHODOLOGY  ..  ..  ..  49-98

Chapter-III : TRENDS OF NON-PERFORMING ASSETS IN SCHEDULED COMMERCIAL BANKS IN INDIA – AN ANALYSIS  99-127

Chapter-V: SOCIO-ECONOMIC PROFILE OF THE DEFAULTING BORROWERS

Chapter-VI: CAUSATIVE FACTORS FOR NON-PERFORMING ASSETS: PERCEPTIONS OF BORROWERS AND BANKERS – AN ANALYSIS

Section-A: Perceptions of Borrowers-An Analysis - Branch-wise Distribution of Respondents – Time gap between applying and sanctioning of loan – Time gap between sanction and disbursement of the loan – Time gap between receiving and utilisation of loan by the unit – Security of the loan – The loan amount as standard asset produced as security for the loan – Purpose of the loan – Instalments – Principal Amount of the loan taken by the Respondent – Repayment of the Loan – Hypothesis-I: Socio-economic factors have significant influence on the amount by the borrowers - Factors influencing the loan amount paid by the borrowers – Amount paid as proportion of the principal amount – Payment of Instalments – Instalments paid as percentage to
Total number of instalments due – Loan Outstanding – The loan outstanding as percentage of total amount of loan – Number of instalments to be paid – Instalments to be paid as percentage in total number of instalments – Regularity in payment of instalments – Perception on Rate of Interest – Lag since the payment of last instalment – Status of the Loan Asset – Multiple loan sources – Other sources of loan – Extent of problems faced – Funds Sufficiency – Extent of Sufficiency – Reasons for insufficiency of loan amount – Borrowers’ knowledge and awareness about the scheme of loan – Type of Knowledge vs Level of Knowledge – Age and existence of the units – Hypothesis–II: There is significant difference in the response of respondents related to reasons for non-existence of Unit – Hypothesis–III: Whether financial constraints or non-financial constraints have significant influence on the existence of the unit - Reasons for sickness and non-existence of the units – Reasons for the non-existence of the unit—An exploratory analysis – Factor-1: Financial constraints - Factor-2: Entrepreneurial Constraints - Factor-3: Marketing Constraints - Income Generation – Possession of Insurance coverage – Adequacy of Insurance coverage – Attitude towards repaying the loan – Time required to repay the loan - Reasons for failure in repaying the loan and ranking according – Hypothesis–IV: There is significant difference in the response on reasons for failure of repaying the loan - Market Acceptance of the product – Percentage of Extent of product acceptance – Perceptions on factors influencing the market – Adequacy of arrangement for marketing of product and transportation – Affect of Natural Calamities – Socio-political pressures on non-repayment of loans – Relationship between the government policy and financial strain of non-repayment – Monitoring and follow-up by the bank authorities – Frequency of monitoring and follow-up – Bank authorities reminding the respondents about the repayment of the loan – Bank authorities visiting business premises/residence – Bank authorities enlightening the settlement of NPA – Mode of settlement on NPA/Loan defaulters – Recovery camps by bank authorities – Number of months the unit is run successfully – Amount for each instalment – Harassment from the bank employees for repayment of the loan – Entrepreneurial Training and Skill Empowerment – Respondents’ suggestions to minimise the NPAs – Section-B: Perception of Bankers-An Analysis – Targets to sanction loans - Government policy in the sanctioning of loans - Delay in sanctioning loans - Adequacy of the loan amount - Assessment of loan applications - Improper and Inadequate assessment of loan applications - The External Pressure for Loan Waiver - Training to borrowers - Intensity of defaulters in different schemes - Defaulter incidence - Priority Sector Vs Non-Priority Sector - Sanction and Recovery of loans: Coordination between bankers and higher officials - Monitoring for recovery of loans - Provisions of Incentives for regular repayment of loans - Hypothesis–V: Whether the incidence of NPAs is due to the failure of borrowers or the policy deficiency of the banks and regulatory bodies - Banker’s opinion on the measures to minimise NPAs –Conclusion.