ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my sense of gratitude and respect to my supervisor, Dr. Atanu Kumar Pati, Reader, School of Life Sciences, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur, for his benevolence and guidance during the course of the present investigation.

I am highly indebted to Prof. M.L. Naik, Head, School of Life Sciences, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur, for his keen interest, help, and for providing laboratory facilities. I am greatly indebted to Prof. S.S. Ali (retired), who took keen interest in my studies while he was the Chairman, School of Life Sciences, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur. I am grateful to the faculty members, Dr. V. Rai, Dr. S.K. Mishra, Dr. Aditi Poddar, Dr. A.K. Gupta, Dr. G.B.K.S. Prasad (now at Gwalior), Dr. S.C. Naithani, Dr. Nibha Gupta (now at Bilaspur) and Dr. Vijaya Koche, who helped me in various ways during the tenure of my work.

I owe a deep sense of gratitude to my senior research colleague, Dr. Shobha Gupta, who provided priceless help and support during the course of this work.

My special thanks are due to my research colleagues, Dr. Maya Shedpure, Dr. Elizabeth Varghese, Ms. Renu Maheshwari, Ms. Seema Gupta, Ms. Preeti Mishra and Dr. Arvind Agrawal for their gracious co-operation and assistance rendered at different phases of my research. I am thankful to all research scholars and staff of the School of Life Sciences, Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University, Raipur, for their help whenever I needed the most.

I am extremely thankful to my husband, Mr. K.R. Parganiha, who provided me lot of inspiration and helped me immensely during on-the-spot field studies and my baby, Lavanya, for bearing with my long absence.

The work presented in this thesis was financially supported by Pt. Ravishankar Shukla University (JRF, No. 5606/FRS/92, dated 8.2.1993), Raipur and Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (SRF, No. 926643/94-EMR-I, dated 16.8.1994), New Delhi.

My thanks are due to the management of a suburban Cement factory, Raipur, without whose co-operation and support it would not have been possible to succeed in my endeavour. I am grateful to all the human subjects who participated in this study voluntarily and took active interest.

Last but not the least, I express my limitless gratitude to my Father-in-law, Shri D.K. Parganiha, Mother-in-law, Smt. Sharda Parganiha, Aunty, Smt. Radha Chandrawanshi, Father, Shri J.L. Chandrawanshi, Mother, Smt. Manju Chandrawanshi, Brothers, Mr. R.K. Chandrawanshi, Deepak and Pankaj, Sister-in-law, Smt. Lata Chandrawanshi, Brother-in-law, Rupendra Parganiha, Sister, Sweta, and my nephew, Master Ayush, who provided encouragements and moral support throughout the course of this investigation.

My thanks are due to so many others who have directly or indirectly contributed to this thesis.

Ms. Arti Chandrawanshi
