Annexure -I

Teachers’ Questionnaire

1. I expect that foreign universities will come to India within the next five years to set up their campus.
   [  ] Yes
   [  ] No
   [  ] Can’t Say

2. India would make a good market for education for these foreign universities
   [  ] Yes
   [  ] No
   [  ] Can’t Say

3. Today, the government and society is more conducive for an overseas university brand to settle.
   [  ] Yes
   [  ] No
   [  ] Can’t Say

4. Foreign universities are more likely to offer higher education courses than primary schooling in India
   [  ] Yes
   [  ] No
   [  ] Can’t Say

5. Foreign universities are more likely to offer higher education courses than secondary schooling in India.
   [  ] Yes
   [  ] No
   [  ] Can’t Say

6. One would prefer a foreign university for:
   a. Primary Education
   b. Secondary Education
   c. Higher Education
   d. All of the Above.
   e. None
7. Any foreign university is more interested in higher education as responsibilities are less, and returns are higher.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

8. Do you think the government is reducing its investment in education?
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

9. Do you think that government funding in higher education will disappear completely?
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

10. Where do you think a foreign university will set up campus?
    [ ] Urban Area
    [ ] Rural Areas
    [ ] Can’t say

11. Today’s students are ready to relocate to a large university, set up in a rural area.
    [ ] Yes
    [ ] No
    [ ] Can’t Say

12. As a teacher, I am prepared to relocate to a large university, set up in a rural area.
    [ ] Yes
    [ ] No
    [ ] Can’t Say

13. With most institutions funded by the government, there isn’t much competition in higher education today.
    [ ] Yes
    [ ] No
    [ ] Can’t Say
14. The entry of foreign universities in India will bring in innovation and force existing college to improve their standards.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

15. An institute of higher education must keep up with its times (syllabus, facilities, staff and opportunities must be creatively designed for the students’ benefit)
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

16. I would prefer my institution to be more flexible, advanced and student friendly.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

17. My institution would stand little chance in the face of competition from foreign universities.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

18. Private institutions show more purpose, involvement in the education process, when compared to government colleges.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

19. The quality of higher education will be a joint responsibility of the management ad teachers of the institution.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say
20. India’s education system must revamp itself to meet the industry’s demands for new recruits (in terms of knowledge and skill)
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

21. Teachers’ performance must be regularly evaluated by students, management and their peer group for lasting and significant development of the education system prevalent today.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

22. India will never be a superpower, until large structural changes are made in our education system.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

Thank you for your time.
Annexure II

Students’ Questionnaire

1. I expect that foreign universities will come to India within the next five years to set up their campus.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

2. India would make a good market for education for these foreign universities
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

3. Today, the government and society is more conducive for an overseas university brand to settle.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

4. Foreign universities are more likely to offer higher education courses than primary schooling in India
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

5. Foreign universities are more likely to offer higher education courses than secondary schooling in India.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

6. One would prefer a foreign university for:
   a. Primary Education
   b. Secondary Education
   c. Higher Education
   d. All of the Above.
   e. None
7. Any foreign university is more interested in higher education as responsibilities are less, and returns are higher.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

8. Do you think the government is reducing its investment in education?
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

9. Do you think that government funding in higher education will disappear completely?
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

10. Where do you think a foreign university will set up campus?
    [ ] Urban Area
    [ ] Rural Areas
    [ ] Can’t say

11. Today’s students are ready to relocate to a large university, set up in a rural area.
    [ ] Yes
    [ ] No
    [ ] Can’t Say

12. With most institutions funded by the government, there isn’t much competition in higher education today.
    [ ] Yes
    [ ] No
    [ ] Can’t Say

13. The entry of foreign universities in India will bring in innovation and force existing college to improve their standards.
    [ ] Yes
    [ ] No
    [ ] Can’t Say
14. An institute of higher education must keep up with its times (syllabus, facilities, staff and opportunities must be creatively designed for the students’ benefit)
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

15. I would prefer my institution to be more flexible, advanced and student friendly.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

16. My institution would stand little chance in the face of competition from foreign universities.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

17. Private institutions show more purpose, involvement in the education process, when compared to government colleges.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

18. The quality of higher education will be a joint responsibility of the management and teachers of the institution.
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say

19. India’s education system must revamp itself to meet the industry’s demands for new recruits (in terms of knowledge and skill)
   [ ] Yes
   [ ] No
   [ ] Can’t Say
20. Teachers’ performance must be regularly evaluated by students, management and their peer group for lasting and significant development of the education system prevalent today.

[ ] Yes
[ ] No
[ ] Can’t Say

21. India will never be a superpower, until large structural changes are made in our education system.

[ ] Yes
[ ] No
[ ] Can’t Say

Thank you for your time.
Annexure 3
Depth Interview Questions

1. What do you think about the current scenario taking place in undergraduate courses?
2. Is it affecting the class strength?
3. What do you think about the current curriculum framed for the course?
4. Is the course meeting the requirements of the industry?

______________________________________________________________

Thank You.