ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am overwhelmed with inexpressible indebtness and gratitude to Prof. S.D Muni for being my supervisor in the first place, for being a constant source of inspiration as an excellent teacher and a great scholar in his own right, and for having provided invaluable guidance at every stage of this work. His contribution to my work would always be remembered with all humility and respect. In particular, his objectivity in research made me strive for aptness in this work.

I am ever grateful to my family for their priceless love and affection all through these years and giving me the opportunity to pursue my studies.

I am thankful to Prof. Mahendra P. Lama for his suggestions and constant encouragement. I like to thank all the faculty members of the South Asian Studies Division for their kind cooperation.

Special thanks to Prof. V.B.S. Kansakar, Prof. Lok Raj Baral, Prof. S.M. Habibullah, Mr. C.K. Lal, Mr. Mahanth Thakur, Mr. Hridesh Tripathi, Mr Rajendra Mahato, Ms. Sarita Giri, Dr. Ram Dayal Rakesh, Dr. Krishna Khannel, Dr. Krishna Hachhethu, Mr. Banwari Lal Mittal, Mr. Shashi Kant Agrawal, Mr. Chandrakishore Jha, Mr. Anil Jha, and to all the lecturers, media persons and students with whom I have interacted during the field study to Nepal.

Similarly, I thank Mr. Sanjay Varma and Ms. Nagma Mallick at the Embassy of India, Kathmandu, for all their help and assistance during my visit to Nepal. I am indebted to Mr. Pokhrel for his immense and timely help.

I am also thankful to all the institutions and people for their support and cooperation extended during the course of carrying out this work. I am delightful to be reminded of the financial assistance by the University to visit Nepal.
I am indebted to the government offices; institutions and libraries for their assistance and cooperation for my research both in India and Nepal. Especially, Dy. Librarian Mr. Chiranjibi Neupane of Tribhuvan Central Library, Centre for Population Studies, Indian Library, National Archives in Nepal and Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, Institute for Defence and Strategic Analysis Library, South Asia Foundation Documentation Centre in New Delhi.

Thanks are due for my friends at JNU - Amresh, Hari, Anil, Lekhanath, Deepak, Myil, David, Ram, Prabhu, Suresh, Dhananjay, Serves, Raja, Ajit, and others. Also, to all my friends of the South Asian Studies Division.

I am also thankful to Mahendra Rana of Sanjay Photostat for making the work come out in a more presentable form.

Thanks to Amresh's family, Ashok and Rejesh for their hospitality during my stay in Nepal.
