ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Doing a thing, though small or large, we can accomplish it, is dependent on wholehearted assistance and encouragement of many persons in many various ways. This Ph.D. thesis, which is achieved well, is not beyond the above law as well. To complete the thesis, I express my heartfelt thanks to all those who has kindly encouraged and supported me in finances and spirituality.

First of all, I would sincerely like to express my deep gratitude to my spiritual master: The Most Venerable THICH QUANG THIEN, abbot of Hoi Phuoc temple, Nha Trang city, Viet Nam, who have opened my mind to the source of Buddhist insight, give me the precept-body and wisdom-livelihood. He water and arouse enlightened- Bodhi seed in my mind-consciousness to rise up and guide me to going to the right, peaceful and free path and serving human beings.

I own a debt of gratitude to my dear departed father - to my beloved mother, who gave me the physical body, brought up me, and taught me to become a useful person for life and for the Dhamma path.

I would like to acknowledge my debt to my learned supervisor Dr. RAJESH RANJAN, Associate Professor, in the Guru Gobind Singh Department of Religious Studies, Punjabi University - PATIALA, for his compassionate guidance, inspiring comments, affectionate supervision and insightful encouragement. He is one of the most loving and caring teachers, I have ever had in my life. Thanks also should go to his family members.

With profound token of gratitude, I acknowledge my thanks to Prof.
Harpal Singh Pannu, Head of Department of Religious Studies. Prof. Rajinder
Kaur Rohi. Prof. K.T.S. Sarao, Prof. Sanghasen Singh, Dr. Mohammad Habid, Dr. Pradyumna shah Singh who are my esteemed professors. All of them have always been very benign, helpful, responsible and enthusiastic in their guidance to me during my sojourn in India.

I would like to express my sincere thanks to Deputy Registrar, Academic Section and staff of Department of Religious Studies together with all members of Research Committee for allowing me to carry out this research.

Additionally, I am sincerely grateful to The Most Venerable Thich Nhu Dien, for his annually partial Scholarship. And with many thanks to my Brother Tonyhai Nguyen, Seattle - USA, who has kindly encouraged and financially supported me and as a consequence, my education could have been to these days.
I owe a great debt of gratitude to my Dhamma brothers, sisters, and friends, for all their helpful and heart-warming suggestions. My thanks are due to everyone whose names have been excluded here without mention for all their kind of assistance as they are numerous. I warmly thank them all and wish them success in their life.

Lastly, my grateful thanks are due to the authors, translators, publishers whose books I have used in my research if without their books I could not complete this research smoothly. With all my whole heart, once more, I am sincerely grateful to them all.

May all beings dwell in the light of Loving-kindness, Compassion, and Wisdom in the right Dhamma!

Punjabi University, January, 2013

NGUYEN HONG TEO

(THICH THANH NAM)