Acknowledgements

I am sincerely thankful for all the kindness and help I have received during the course of writing this thesis. I take this opportunity to place on record my special indebtedness to Prof. Yogesh Sharma, my supervisor, who encouraged me to undertake the research on occupational caste groups in Madras and spared his valuable time throughout the writing of this work by going through all lines, correcting all the shortfalls, and discussing various aspects of the matter continuously with helpful comments. His help has been invaluable to me. This work might not have come to proper shape without his sincere guidance, direction and counseling constantly which not only enabled me to take corrective action but also, I am indeed profoundly grateful to him for the memorable guidance.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to my parents to whom I dedicated this humble work. Their unceasing support and prayers had been an incessant source of strength and happiness for me, in spite of the hectic schedule in the course of my research.

I express my deep love for Aditya. I also express my thanks to my brothers, Jai Prakash and Vinod Kumar; and my sisters Gita, Sangita and Sushma who have been very helpful throughout my work. I am also thankful to my Fufaji, Shri Sur Narayan for the moral support throughout my research. In addition, I also express my sincere thanks to Paramjeet Kaur, who not only helped me financially but also gave valuable time for the research.

My special thanks to Dr. Chinna Rao who not only gave me valuable advise for the Ph.D. work but also helped me write my Ph.D on time. He also extended his warm love and affection, and showered upon me enthusiasm and energy especially on problem-solving occasions.

I also extend my sincere thanks to my friends like Ramachandra Reddy, Srinivas, B.S. Chandrababu, Adinarayana, K.S. Mathew, Dr. Saundarya Rajan and so on.

I am also indebted to Anil Choudhary, Director, PEACE, an NGO, and National President of INSAF Movement who not only helped me financially but also stood with me in my bad days. I will never forget the kindness and generosity that he had given to me all these days. I am also thankful to Prof. Harbans Mukhia, Prof. Rajat Datta, Dr. Kumkum Roy, Dr. Mahalakshmi, Dr. Hiranman Tiwari, Prof. Tanika Sarkar, Dr. K.K. Trivedi, Dr. Joy Pachuari, Dr. Vivek Kumar, Prof. S.N. Malakar and Prof. S.K. Thorat for their financial help rendered to me during the course of my study. I am further thankful to Prof. Shiv Sharandas Agrawal (during B.A), Shri. K.P. Singh, Shri Rawat, and Shri. Sabhapati Jaiswal and Shrimati Jaiswal (during intermediate), Shrimati Vimla Singh, Ambika Prasad Singh, Subho Tiwari (during Primary and High Schools), for providing me with financial support.

I am also beholden to the Centre for Historical Research (C.H.S.), Jawaharlal Nehru University, for the parental care towards all their scholars. I also express my sincere gratitude to the staff of DSA Library (JNU, New Delhi), National Archives of India (New Delhi), JNU Central Library, Kapoor Madam and Dharmender (CHS).

I also extend my sincere thanks to all friends for their prayers and moral support. However, it is impossible to acknowledge my gratitude to all of them individually for want of space. But special mention is due to Prithviraj Prasad, Sunil Kumar Suman, Nadim, Sakti, Nivedita, Ravi Rajan Sen, Tapas da, Mona, Vijay Kumar Yadavendu, Anil Anand, Ram Milan, Deep Narayan Verma, Padam, Prashant Kain, Pradeep Chintu and Vikash Rathi.

This work would not have been accomplished without the help Dr. Sugathan, Mr.P.C.Viswanathan, Satish, Rashmi, James and Mahesh who assiduously carried out the proof-reading.

I am especially thankful to Arpan Photostat and its staff (Tarun & Yogesh) at Kamal Complex, JNU, New Delhi for editing and printing this work.
