Chapter 1: Understanding the Context of the Study ................................................................. 1
  1.1 Introduction ................................................................................................................ 1
  1.2 Rationale and Need of the study ............................................................................... 4
  1.3 Statement of the Problem ........................................................................................... 8
  1.4 Objectives .................................................................................................................. 8
  1.5 Methodology of the Study .......................................................................................... 8
  1.6 Limitations and Delimitations .................................................................................... 9

Chapter 2: Theoretical Framework and Review of Related literature (A – Understanding Alternative Frameworks and the Teaching-Learning Contexts) ............................................. 12
  2.1 Alternative Framework and Related Terms ............................................................. 12
  2.2 Concept Specific Researches on Alternative Frameworks ...................................... 16
  2.3 Possible Sites of Alternative Frameworks ............................................................... 25
  2.4 Reasons for Development of Alternative Frameworks ......................................... 36
  2.5 Addressing Alternative Frameworks ......................................................................... 40
  2.6 Implications for the Study ....................................................................................... 42

Chapter 3: Theoretical Framework and Review of Related Literature (B – Understanding Computer Assisted Learning in the Context of Alternative Framework) ..................................... 45
  3.1 Introduction .............................................................................................................. 46
  3.2 Building up a Context for Computer Assisted Learning ........................................ 46
  3.3 Using Computer in Non-Interactive Instructional Mode ......................................... 48
  3.4 Enabling Interactive Learning Using Computers ..................................................... 50
7.4 Suggestions for Further Research: ................................................................. 194
