ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

My first and foremost acknowledgment is to my supervisor Prof. Subhadra M. Channa for her guidance, advice, suggestions, encouragement and caring throughout the entire course of this study. I will be forever grateful for the time, advice, energy and direction that she provided. She always has listened to me although I am not good at English and Hindi, and has tried to understand my words to murmur confusedly. I also received great help and support from Prof. Vinay Srivastara and Prof. S.M. Patnaik in the Advisory Committee, and from Prof. Satwanti Kappor and Prof. P.C. Joshi.

I express my sincere thanks to the head of Department Prof. S.L. Malik and all faculty members for their cooperation and guidance. I truly thank for their help the staffs in the office of the Anthropology Department, the Mrs. Kiran Narang, Mr. Salim Ahmed, Ms. Savita Rani, and Mrs. Hema Madan. Especially, Ms. Rani always talked to me in English and it was very helpful. I am deeply grateful to Prof. P.K Ghosh for his kindness. He was the Head of Department when I enrolled at the Ph.D course of the Department and his help made me feel welcome in India.

I am thankful for their support to the staffs of Central Library, Central Science Library, Ratan Tata Library, University Health Center, BRS in the Science Faculty, and the University Hostel for Women. The University Hostel provided me with the safe and comfortable shelter for three years. They also served me hot meals everyday. The hostel provided students with rooms and food with low-priced. It was not a gorgeous hostel but a very nice and warm space.

I have to acknowledge that my fieldwork was impossible without permission and help of many committees and the ordinary people. I write down some of their names here. Hakikat Residents Welfare Association, Hudson Line Residents Welfare Association, Chandni Chowk Mercantile Market Association, Sri Krishna Mandir in Hakikat Nagar, Delhi Traffic Police, Kotwali in Chandni Chowk, Luv Khushi Lamlila
Committee, Ramlila Maidan, M.C.R.RY.Co.Ed. School in Hakikat Nagar, Sri Guru Teg Bahadur Khalsa Girls School in Chandni Chowk, Baptist Church School in Chandni Chowk, Sisganj Gurdwara, Guru Nanak Piao Gurdwara, Anjuman TaaziaDaran committee, Fatehpuri Masjid and Madrasa, Husain Baksh Madrasa in Matia Mahal, Jama Masjid, Guari Sankar Mandir, Educational Department of MCD, vendors and washermen in Hakikat Nagar, and so on.

I thank the friends in my hostel from their support. Especially, Nazia Khan wrote down not only my interview voice files on my notebook but also translated them in English. Indelah and Pooja translated my questions in Hindi during in my field areas. Basu, Maya, and Babika checked my English writing and collected the mistakes. Besides, I am thankful for Anu George, Manini, and Sudha who taught me Hindi and English.

Lastly, I deeply thank for their support Prof. Jung Seung Mo in the Research Center of Regional Culture and Prof. Kim Sae Gun in the National Kang Weon University. They always encouraged me to do the best. Now, my family! I express my love to my family, my parents, my four sisters, especially my elder sister Kim Ok Hee, and my seven nephews.
