ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I deem it as a pleasure to express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. N. P. Shahapur, Professor, Chairman and Dean, Faculty of Education, Department of Post-Graduate Studies in Education, Karnataka University, Dharwad for allowing me to pursue my doctoral study on the present topic.

My deep sense of gratitude to Dr. R. H. Naik, Associate Professor, University College of Education, Karnataka University, Dharwad for having given me sustained guidance and constant encouragement throughout this study. His enthusiasm, academic perseverance, precision, and above all, his human concern are worth emulating. He is an academic force by himself. I consider it my privilege to have worked under his guidance for this thesis. I am greatly indebted to him for his inspiration, timely help and invaluable initiation.

I am also deeply grateful to Dr. H.M. Kasinath, Professor, former Chairman and Dean, Faculty of Education, Post-graduate Department of Studies in Education, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for having given me academic consultancy, co-operation and support throughout the research endeavour.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not thank the Principals, teachers and students of Secondary Schools of Dandeli, for their co-operation extended to me at the time of collection of data.

I am thankful to all the Staff of Post Graduate Department of Education, Karnataka University, Dharwad for their co-operation and timely suggestions.

My thanks are also due to all my colleagues and management authorities of Kanara Welfare Trust’s College of Education, Dandeli for their constant encouragement and co-operation throughout the endeavour.

I am thankful to Shri Vasant Yaji for his help in developing multimedia packages. I am thankful to Shri Mahaltesh for his help in Statistical analysis of the data. I am also thankful to Shri Prakash Yavalekar for his help in documenting the thesis in the electronic
I would not have completed this work without encouragement and blessings of my parents Shri B. Madhukar Hegde and Smt K. Rajeevi Hegde. Along with my parents I also remember with gratitude Shri K. Bhaskar Hegde and Smt Lalitha B. Hegde for their blessings and encouragement in conducting this study.

The credit for putting up with all my irregularities and absence from home should go to my husband Shri K. Ashok Kumar B. Hegde and daughter Miss Saishriya A. Hegde. They have always understood my need and abstained from demanding my time. This love and acceptance without any questioning has been a source of great strength and inspiration for me throughout the endeavour.

My brother Shri Ashrith Hegde K. and his family have encouraged me a lot in my studies. I remember all of them along with other members of my family on this occasion.

I am aware that a task like this cannot be undertaken successfully without the co-operation and assistance from friends and well wishers at its various stages. I am grateful all those who have made this study a reality.

Ashmic Hegde, K.
