ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is a great satisfaction to me that I could complete the research work. This research work could reach the present stage of completion only because of the co-operation of number of persons. I feel that it is my duty to express my indebtedness to all of them.

I take this opportunity to express my sense of gratitude to Dr. P. B. Kale, Professor of Horticulture, College of Agriculture, Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh Krishi Vidyapeeth Akola, and my guide, who offered previous and timely guidance in course of completion of this task.

I am also grateful to Dr. D. M. Nikhare, Associate Dean (1) Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh Krishi Vidyapeeth, Akola, for valuable guidance and constructive criticism in completing this task.

Words are inadequate to express my sincere thanks to Dr. P. Y. Kulkarni, Professor and Head, Department of Extension Education, Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh Krishi Vidyapeeth, Akola, who provided an excellent guidance when investigator came across most challenging, critical and difficult situation in carrying out this investigation. This investigation could not have been run in its final shape to day without his co-operation besides previous guidance.
My sincere gratitude to Mr. S. N. Behera, Senior Lecturer in Post-Graduate Teaching Department of Physical Education, Amravati University, Amravati for his sincere efforts in computation work of this research work. Without his timely support in analysis the research work couldn't have been completed in time.

My sincere thanks are to Dr. P. D. Jingle and Dr. Thol Dpatt. of Statistics for their guidance in computing statistical data.

I record my sincere thanks to Dr. Anup Kothari and Dr. Venayak Deshmukh for their help, guidance, valuable comments and discussions which were of great importance in planning the research strategy.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not place on record the sincere thanks to Dr. Pimparkar, Medical Officer and workers of Primary Health Centre for their untiring co-operation and assistance in contacting the respondents for collection of requisite information.

I can not forget in my life the inspiration given to me my Late Mother-in-Law for further studies and this research work. I always remain grateful to her for sharing my most of the responsibilities to make me enable to complete this work.
A word of thanks would be insufficient to acknowledge the co-operation rendered in this investigation by my sister Mrs. Sara Ahmed and her family members.

Words are inadequate to express feelings of my gratitude to my husband for extending hands of full co-operation, constant inspiration and freedom from family obligations, besides encouragement throughout the course of investigation. My loving children Shcel and Seema have been immense source of inspiration to me for supporting me morally to evoke me to complete this task.

I hope that my research work will prove a useful step towards the realization and solution of the problem.
