ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First and Foremost, I bow my head in reverence to the God Almighty for providing me with this opportunity to work with the intelligentsia and enabling me reach far beyond my own restricted ambit of thought and action. I may halt for a while and avail this opportunity to place on record my gratefulness to all those, who have made a direct or indirect contribution towards the successful completion of this thesis.

I wish to express my gratitude to Dr. A.S.Yaruingam who has been the greatest source of inspiration for me; he has always helped and motivated me in the significant task of research. He has shown keen interest by providing his valuable suggestion from time to time. I am extremely thankful to Dr. Tribhuwan Prasad & Dr. Rashmi Kapoor for their moral support and knowledge guidance. I would like to thank Dr. Tapan Biswal and Dr. Devender Kakar who always showed an unwavering faith in my abilities. I express my sincere thanks to my colleague lecturer Dr. Mithilesh Kumar Singh who contributed his best to make it a successful accomplishment.

I am grateful to the Rwandan women who inspire me every moment in my life to contribute the best of my efforts towards strengthening the status of women in the society. I am extremely thankful to the Rwandan Women Academicians, Head of the various Women Organization in Rwanda like Rwanda Women’s Network, AVEGA-Rwanda, International Organization for Women and Development and The Rwanda Association of University Women, The Akilah Institute for Women, Rwanda who connected with me constantly for women latest development through email.

I express heartful thanks to Mr Ngoga Eugene, (Acting High Commissioner in Rwandan Embassy) without whom it would not have been possible. I would also like to acknowledge the contribution of different NGOs like catholic relief services in Rwanda, National Unity and Reconciliation commission, Profemme Twese Hamwe, Haguruka IBUKA for giving me their constant feedback regarding their activities related with women in Rwanda.
I thanks to Pambazuka News Website (www.pambazuka.org/en) published by a Pan-African community of involving 2,600 citizens and the various organizations for academicians, policy makers, social activists, women organizations, writers, artists, poets, bloggers and commentators. The combined efforts produced insight, sharp and thoughtful analyses and make it one of the largest and most innovative and influential web forums for social justice in Africa. Pambazuka news website is really helpful for developing the understanding of the African culture in relation to women empowerment and policy execution in women context and really helped me to enhance my knowledge.

I extend my special thanks to all newspapers from Rwanda like The New Times: Rwanda’s First Daily, In2Eastfrica, Irwanda rw, News of Rwanda, Oasis Gazette, Business Daily, AllAfrica Rwanda, IRIN news Rwanda, ReliefWeb Rwanda, WN Rwanda Star, Topix Local News: Rwanda which are available on internet proved to be the greatest source of current information.

I appreciate the cooperation by the staff members of various libraries like Rattan Tata, Jawaharlal Nehru University Library, ICWA, Central Reference Library, African Studies Departmental Library, The Indian Council of World Affairs Library, Sapru House, Teen Murti Library, Women Development Study Center Library who have been very helpful and made available all Library facilities needed for work from time to time.

I am also thankful to University Grant Commission for providing me with Junior Research Fellowship and Senior Research Fellowship for my Ph D research work.

I am personally thankful to my family for their constant encouragement and forbearance during the course of my study. My special thanks are to the administrative staff of the department of African studies for their kind help and cooperation. I would also like to thanks my fellow research scholars for their valuable critical comments and suggestions.
