ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am principally quite grateful and morally overwhelmed to owe my gratitude towards my teacher and research supervisor Prof. R. K. Mohanty, Department of Mathematics, University of Delhi, Delhi under whose guidance I not only understand the meaning of research but also got the deep knowledge of the subject. I also want to express my gratitude to my joint supervisor Dr. L. M. Saha for his constant encouragement, support and making my life comfortable during the span of my research endeavor.

I am quite indebted to the Head, Department of Mathematics, Prof. Ajay Kumar and also the former Heads, Prof. B. K. Dass & Prof. T. B. Singh for their guidance and the world class research environment that they have created in the department.

I cannot find words to express my heartfelt gratitude and love towards my grandfather, Shri. Gauri Singh; my mother, Smt. Tilottma Devi; my father & my teacher, Shri. K. C. K. Pd. Singh and my sisters Pallawi, Illa and Aparna for their patience, encouragement and painful efforts to get my work completed with great ease.

From the deep of my heart, I want to express my gratitude towards my teachers Dr. D.S. Jaggi, Dr. Satya Goel, Dr. Suman Verma and Dr. V. Ambethkar for constantly guiding and standing with me.

Quite special thanks to my seniors Dr. Navnit Jha, Mr. Ravi Ranjan, Dr. Dhiraj Kumar Singh and Mr. Ravi Shankar Ravi for their love, care and support at each and every step of the difficulties that I have faced during the course.

I am thankful to all the present and former students of Prof. R. K. Mohanty : Dr. Pandey, Dr. Jha, Dr. Singh, Mr. Ravinder, Deepika, Jyoti, Nikita, Vinod and Sachin for the discussion and suggestions that I have got in one and the other way during the completion of this work.

It would not be fare if I would not acknowledge the Department of Science and Technology (DST), Council of Scientific Research (CSIR), National Board of Higher Mathematics (NBHM), Govt. of India and Research Council, University of Delhi, Delhi for providing me appropriate financial support to present a part of my work at the various national and international platforms.
I would like to thank all the staffs of the Department of Mathematics, Board of Studies for Mathematical Sciences and Jubilee Hall, University of Delhi, for their continuous care and support throughout my course period.

Last but not the least, I owe my gratitude from the deep of my heart to my dear friends Mrityunajay, Seema, Archana, Rashmi, Preeti, Rajnish, Arunabh, Bibhuti, Rahul, Khan, Vivek, Mohit, Sanjeev, Niraj, Chandan, Sachin, Chandrashekhar, Ram Pravesh and all those who have been always standing with me in time of stress and sorrow during the course of my study.
