Acknowledgment

This thesis arose in part out of years of research that has been done since I came to Prof. Anamik Shah’s group. By that time, I have worked with a great number of people whose contribution in assorted ways to the research and the making of the thesis deserved special mention. It is a pleasure to convey my gratitude to them all in my humble acknowledgment.

In the first place I would like to record my gratitude to Prof. ANAMIK SHAH for his supervision, advice, and guidance from the very early stage of this research as well as giving me extraordinary experiences throughout the work. Above all and the most needed, he provided me unflinching encouragement and support in various ways. His truly scientific intuition has made him as a constant oasis of ideas and passions in science, which has exceptionally, inspire and enrich my growth as a student, a researcher and a scientist want to be. I am indebted to him for more than he knows.

I gratefully acknowledge My Co-Supervisor Prof. ERIK VAN DER EYCKEN Laboratory for Organic & Microwave-Assisted Chemistry (LOMAC), Department of Chemistry, University of Leuven (K.U.Leuven), Belgium, for his advice, supervision, and crucial contribution, which made him a backbone of this research and so to this thesis. His involvement with his originality has triggered and nourished my intellectual maturity that I will benefit from, for a long time to come. Erik, I am grateful in every possible way and hope to keep up our collaboration in the future.

I am very thankful to the faculties of Department of Chemistry namely, Professor and Head Dr. P.H. Parasaniya, Prof. V. H. Shah, Dr. H. S. Joshi, Dr. Shipra Baluja, Dr. M. K. Shah, Dr. Yogesh Naliapara, Dr. U.C.Bhoya and Dr. R. C. Khunt for their encouragement and evergreen support.

The Department of Chemistry and LOMAC has provided the support and equipment I have needed to produce and complete my thesis and the UGC and Erasmus Mundus has funded my studies. Many Thanks.
Many thanks go in particular to Dr. Denis Ermolet‘v. I am much indebted to Denis for his valuable advice in scientific discussion and synthetic part of this thesis.

To the role model for hard workers in the lab, Dr. Vaibhav Mehta, I would like to thank him for many reasons. I would also acknowledge Sachin, Rupesh, Ripula, Dipak, Punit, Bari, Jigo, Nigam, Nick, Prof. BK, and Claudia (Lab Mummy) for their advice and their willingness to share their bright thoughts with me, which was very fruitful for shaping up my ideas and research. Thanks to each and every members of LOMAC.

Collective and individual acknowledgments are also owed to my colleagues at Saurashtra University whose presence somehow perpetually refreshed, helpful, and memorable. Many thanks go in particular to Vaibhav, Bunty, Ravi, Sailesh, Shrey, Dhiru, Abhay, Bapu, Nilay, Manisha, Harshad, Ronny, Mrunal, Rakshit, Ashish, Priti, Fatema, Ketaki, Dilip, Pratik, Vishwa and Paresh. I was extraordinarily fortunate in having Rahul, Matre, Jigo, Bharat, Suresh, Pankaj, Atul, Raju, Naval, Naimish, Dodia, Ghetiya Satish and Mahesh as my friends. Thanks to all dear.

To Prashant Shah, thank for giving me the opportunity to work on your Osh in Ahmedabad. To Cnp, Tushar, Jigo, Pradip, Hemal, Nileshwari, Shabu, PP, Hiral, Tejas, Pareshbhai and Vikas thank for your technical assistances and fun during the work we had in Osh. It is also a pleasure to mention.

I am tempted to individually thank all of my friends which, from my childhood until graduate school, have joined me in the discovery of what is life about and how to make the best of it. However, because the list might be too long and by fear of leaving someone out, I will simply say thank you very much to you all.

It is a pleasure to express my gratitude wholeheartedly to Anamik Shah’s family for their kind hospitality during my stay in Rajkot for Ph.D. Specially thanks to Ranjanmam and Aditya.

Where would I be without my family? My parents deserve special mention for their inseparable support and prayers. My Father Savdasbhai, in the first place is the person who put the fundament of my learning character, showing me the joy of intellectual pursuit ever since I was a child. My Mother Hansaben, is the one who sincerely raised me with her caring and gently love. My special gratitude is due to my dadi, my brother Kalpesh, Bhabhi Jayshreeben, my sisters Manisha, Jiju Rajnibhai, Sweet Miral, Mahek, Nancy, & Man, my uncle Manshukhbhai and his family for their loving support.

Words fail me to express my appreciation to my wife Trupti whose dedication, love and persistent confidence in me, has taken the load off my shoulder. I owe her for being unselfishly let her intelligence, passions, and ambitions collide with mine. Therefore, I would also thank Tupi’s family for letting me take her hand in marriage, and accepting me as a member of the family, warmly. Furthermore, to Sorathiya family with their thoughtful support, thank you.

I would like to thank everybody who was important to the successful realization of thesis, as well as expressing my apology to those whose name I could not mention individually.

Finally, I bow my head before almighty GOD, who has inspired ME in each and every stage of my life.
