ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I express my sincere gratitude to my guide, Prof. M. Mani Meitei, Head, Department of English, Manipur University, for his invaluable guidance, advice and help all through the various stages of my research work. He has been a constant source of inspiration to me. I am indebted to him not only for the constant encouragement and consistent supervision, but also for being kind enough to give me access to his home library. The assistance of these materials has been a blessing for me without which I would not have thought of starting writing.

I also owe my sincere thanks to Prof. S. Sanatombi, Dean of Humanities, Department of Manipuri, Manipur University for her encouragement and support. Throughout my research period she has given me invaluable advice, instructions as well as timely help.

I am also indebted to the Manipur University Library, Imphal and National Library Kolkata for providing me with the indispensable collection of materials needed for my research work. Without the assistance of these materials and generous guidance of my guide, I would not have completed my doctoral thesis.

I am grateful to my parents – (L) Shri Daoji Oinam and Smt. Memcha Oinam – for their love and care from the very beginning. I also express my heartfelt gratitude to my father-in-law and my husband for their moral support.
My thanks are due to Smt. A. Manglembi Devi for the neat setting of the thesis and Shri Ph. Iboyaima Sharma for binding the thesis neatly.

Last but not the least, I express my special thanks to those persons whose names are not mentioned here but whose support and generous considerations have brought me this success.

Dated, April , 2011

( Promila Oinam )

Canchipur