ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am indebted to many people who helped me in my thinking and encouraged me to develop and write this thesis. Among them, there are few names to be acknowledged here with sincere gratitude and obligation.

First and foremost is my Research guide, Rev. Fr. O.J. Alex CMI, Principal, Rajagiri College of Social Sciences, Kalamassery who has guided and helped me in my thinking process throughout this study.

I owe my obligation and gratitude to Prof. P. Ramachandran (Rtd), Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Bombay, Dr. Udaya Mahadevan, Loyola College, Madras and Dr. R. Parthasarathy, Dept. of Psychiatric Social Work, National Institute of Mental Health and Neuro Sciences, Bangalore for their valuable suggestions and encouragement.

I express my gratitude to Dr. George Joseph M.D. and Dr. Seethalakshmi George M.D., Kusumagiri Mental Health Centre, Kakkanad and Dr. Philip John M.D., Peejay’s Clinic, Ernakulam for helping me in identifying the children with Behaviour Disorders.

I extend my sincere gratitude to the staff of the Computer Department, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Bombay for their valuable help in making the Statistical Analysis of the data in SPSS PC+ and to the staff of the Rajagiri Computer Centre, especially Miss Ruby Job, Mrs. Geetha Shoji Isaac and Mr. Praveen for their timely help in the printing and layout of the report.
I would like to express my sincere thanks to my colleagues in the Rajagiri College of Social Sciences for their suggestions and encouragement which helped me to complete this venture.

My respondents should be thanked profusely for their cooperation in providing me with accurate data.

A final word of thanks to my family members for their patience, understanding and help they extended throughout my endeavour.
