ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I would like to express my gratitude and Independence to my research supervisor, Dr. G. T. Somashekar, Assistant Professor in Department of Studies in History at Manasagangothri, University of Mysore, Mysore, for his valuable guidance, constant supervision and benoalvent encouragement throughout the course of my research work.

I am highly indebted to Dr. N. Saraswathi, Professor and Chairman Department of Studies in History at Manasagangothri, University of Mysore, for her initiation, kindness and encouragement shown towards the completion of this thesis and helping me out in proof reading.

I am greatful to Dr. Sugitha Suvarna, Professor, Department of Studies in History at Manasagangothri, University of Mysore, for her support and encouragement during the course of my study.

I owe special thanks to Dr. Ashwathnarayan, Professor, Department of Studies in History at Manasagangothri, University of Mysore, for his support and encouragement during the course of my studies and conducting wonderful lecture sessions and giving practical tips during PhD course work.
My sincere thanks are due to Dr. Sebastain Joseph, Professor, Department of Studies in History at Manasagangothri, University of Mysore, for his support and help.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. Rajanna, Professor, Department of Studies in History at Manasagangothri, University of Mysore, for his support and help.

In preparing this thesis I have consulted various books, reports, journals, published and unpublished materials. I shall be greatful to critics who may suggest corrections to be made in this thesis.

In preparation of this thesis I have received help from various persons and institutions. My thanks are due to the authorities of Mysore University Library, my sincere thanks to Mr. Rajendra, the Librarian, History Library at Department of Studies in History at Manasagangothri, University of Mysore, for allowing access to the available books.

It will be lapse on my part if I do not acknowledge the unfailing help from the Director of Mysore Regional Archives, for allowing access to the available records.

I am greatful to Rev. Sister Prafula, Principal of Teresian P.U. College, Mysore, for her encouragement and moral support.
My sincere thanks to Rev. Sister. Ann Mary, Associate Professor, Department of History, Teresian Degree College and Rev. Sister. Joyce, Former Principal of Teresian Degree College, for their encouragement.

I am indebted to my parents for providing me constant support and encouragement, who have been a constant source of inspiration in all my academic Endeavour and have stood behind me, reminding me of my deadlines to complete my work. I am indebted to my brothers for the help and encouragement during the course of this work.

I am greatful to Mr. Vaseem Akram, Computer System Administrator, N.R. Mohalla, Mysore, for his neat execution for computer print DTP works of this thesis.

I am greatful to Miss Nethravathi, for helping me in proof reading and suggesting some corrections.

I dedicate this work to my Lord, for his spirit and energy.

Place: Mysore
(ANTO RICHARD)
Date:
Research scholar
Department of Studies in History, Manasagangothri, University of Mysore