ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

There are a lot of people that I want to thank who have in some way or the other turned out a blessing to me during my journey so far.

To begin with, I want to sincerely thank my supervisor Dr. M. Thirumal, who has competently supervised my research with understanding and concern. I am extremely thankful for his unflinching guidance, willingness to help and constructive feedback.

I would also like to express my gratitude to my co-supervisor Professor Virinder S Parmar for his supervision, advice, guidance and enriching experience throughout the research journey. Above all, he provided me the opportunity to carry out my research work in his esteemed group and providing with all necessary facilities in the laboratory, with many useful suggestions, important advices and continuous encouragement during the course of the work. His optimistic and energetic attitude, integral view on research and leadership qualities has made a deep impression on me. Sir, I apologize for not being able to meet up to your expectations sometimes yet still am thankful to you for still believing in me and inspiring me in life.

I am also profoundly appreciative of my thesis co-supervisor Professor Erik Van der Eycken for giving me an opportunity to work as a visiting Ph.D student in his laboratory at “Laboratory for Organic & Microwave-Assisted Chemistry (LOMAC)”, Department of Chemistry, Katholieke Universiteit, Celestijnenlaan 200F, B-3001 Heverlee, Leuven, Belgium. It is because of his valuable advice, supervision and support that I was able to finish my project within a limited time. His dedication towards originality and innovation has triggered and nourished my intellectual maturity, which will benefit me in my future endeavours.

I would also like to thank:

- The Head, Department of Chemistry, University of Delhi for providing me the necessary laboratory facilities and a stimulating environment for carrying out research.
- Prof. Ashok K Prasad and Prof. Sunil K Sharma, the members of my PhD advisory committee, for monitoring the progress of my work, providing invaluable suggestions from time to time.
- Dr. Brajendra K. Singh, a senior labmate and now Assistant Professor at the Department of chemistry, University of Delhi for providing me with his invaluable inputs and suggestions during my research work.
• Collaborators of our group Prof. K. Parang at Department of Biomedical and Pharmaceutical Sciences, University of Rhode Island, Kingston, USA, for carrying out the anticancer activity screening and Prof. H.G. Raj at Patel Chest Institute, Delhi, for their kind and considerate cooperation and help in carrying out the CRTAase (Calreticulin Transacetylase) activity evaluation of our compounds.

• Dr. C E Olsen of the Department of Basic Sciences and Environment, University of Copenhagen, Frederiksberg C, Denmark and Bert Demarsin of the Department of Chemistry, Katholieke Universiteit, Leuven, Belgium for generous and timely recording of the mass spectra of my several samples.

• Mr. Karel Duerinckx (Leuven) and Mr. Amit (Delhi) for his invaluable help in running my samples for NMR whenever needed.

• I take this opportunity to thank my former and current colleagues; Dr. Mofazzal Husain, Dr. Jyotirmoy Maity, Dr. Ajendra Sharma, Dr. Ashish Dhawan, Dr. Gaurav Shakya, Dr. Yogesh Yadav, Dr. Shashwat Malhotra, Dr. Sumit Malik, Dr. Shilpi Tomar, Dr. Pie Cao, Dr. Raman Sharma, Dr. Deepti Sharma, Dr. Sumati Bhatia, Dr. Gaurav Vrashney, Dr. Pramod Sharma, Dr. Abha Kathuria, Karam Chand, Neha Aggarwal, Anu Arya, Anuj Khandelwal, Divya Mathur, Dheeraj, Vivek Sharma, Kapil Bohra, Jyoti Arora, Ram Jeewan Yadav, Richa Tomar, Yogita Bisht, Yogesh Dixit, Shiv Hans, Vijay Bahadur, Anil Singh, Vinod Khatri, Badri Parshad, Atul Kumar, Rajesh, Manish, Smriti, Meena Kumari, Preeti Yadav, Suchita Prasad, Arvin Sain Tanwar, Abhishek and Neha Rana for providing a positive working atmosphere and helping me out in one way or another.

• I would like to give my warmest thanks to all my colleagues in LOMAC, K U Leuven, Belgium.

• My friends, Dr. Jaspal Singh, Dr. Ritu Chaudhary, Dr. Rakesh Kumar, Anshika Narang, Gurmeet Singh, Megha Joshi, Trapti Aggarwal, Vineeta Rustagi and Monika Patel for their help, valuable suggestions and also keeping my spirit high even in bad times.

• I also convey my sincere thanks to Dr Sukhdev Singh, Abhilash Tyagi and Abdullah Khan for their moral support throughout the writing process and their help in reading the drafts and providing me valuable suggestions. Without their support this task would have not been completed.

• Heartfelt thanks to my friends Deepika Malpani, Tarveen Kaur, Anurag Gupta, Atul Aggarwal and Rahul Arora for their love, constant support and believe in me.

• My friends who were my family in Belgium: Shruti Chopra, Stiti Pragyan Bhumika and Sravya Nimmagadda. They made me feel at home by constantly and selflessly loving and caring for my well-being.
Mr Baldev Singh Rana, Department of Chemistry, University of Delhi for his assistance and help in several administrative matters throughout this venture.

Supporting staff of our group, especially Narinder Singhji, Ashok Dogra, Sanjay Goel, Rajendra, Mahendra, Dhananjay, Harish, Amit and Sanjeev as they have been very cooperative during my entire stay in the Department.

I would like to acknowledge the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR, Delhi (India) and Research fund of Katholieke Universiteit, Leuven (Belgium) for awarding me fellowship to carry out the research work.

Words fall short in expressing my heart-felt veneration for my grandparents Late (Shri) Tika Ram Sharma and Late (Smt.) Ram Pyari Sharma. I owe to my parents Shri Lalta Pd. Sharma (Father) and Smt. Indra Sharma (Mother), Shri Mahesh K. Sharma (Father-in-law) and Smt. Shashi Sharma (Mother-in-law) whose blessings and energetic support kept me going to achieve this task. I am heartily thankful for their unconditional love, support and showing faith in my ability. You are guiding angels, my backbone and have been an inspiration to me always. Thank you so much for all the unsaid, unspoken love and praise.

I am indebted to my uncle Shri. Suresh C. Sharma for his priceless support and encouraging discussions has given me a lot of extra dimension in day to day life. I am also thankful to Shri. Satish C. Sharma (uncle) and Shri. Sunil K. Sharma (uncle) for their immense support and motivation throughout this endeavor.

I surely cannot forget to mention my grateful thanks to my sisters Ritu Sharma, Akanksha Sharma, Vanya Sharma, Himani Sharma (sister-in-law) and brother Nakul Sharma whose endless love and affection have always been a moving inspiration throughout this journey. Also, heartfelt thanks to my bhaiya Mr. Vivek Atreya, for his immense love, care, pampering and supporting me in my tough times. You are my best friend. Thank you so much for your love and protection.

Finally, I would like to give my special thanks to my husband, Mr. Himanshu Sharma, who was always there standing by my side in all my good as well as bad times. Thank you so much for your never-ending love, care, support and affection which was my driving force to achieve this task.

I pay my inmost tributes to the Lord Sai for giving me strength and wisdom with great sense of humanity to complete this task.

Finally, I must thank all those whom I have failed to mention but they have helped in various ways during the course of this work.

SWETA SHARMA
