Acknowledgements

This thesis is a result of the moral and material encouragement that I have received from a lot of people: friends, teachers, colleagues and parents. When I started my doctoral research in 2006, on study leave from the University of Jammu, I did not think that I would be able to submit the thesis in 2009, even though I had wanted to do so. It was the constant encouragement and timely feedback from my Supervisor and now esteemed colleague, Professor Rajesh Rajagopalan, that made it possible for me to submit the thesis in 2009. I am grateful to him for guiding me through the difficult phase of deciding what to write my Ph. D thesis on, and then writing up the thesis along with my teaching duties first at Jamia Millia Islamia and then at JNU.

I also wish to place on record my gratitude to Professor Amitabh Mattoo who has been a constant source of encouragement not only while writing my thesis but all throughout my intellectual pursuits and academic career. I am grateful to him for being a true philosopher, guide and friend.

I am grateful to a large number of friends, colleagues and teachers for the encouragement and support that I have received from them while writing this thesis. I wish to place on record my gratitude to Professor Pushpesh Pant, Professor Swaran Singh, Mathew Joseph, Mallika Joseph, Madhan Mohan and my colleagues at CIPOD who have been extremely understanding and supportive while I was in the process of completing my thesis.

I am also grateful to my parents, sister and brothers and my wife Sindu for all the encouragement and emotional support they have given me.
