ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

If knowledge is the source of light in the life, then contributions made by some very special persons in the completion of this mammoth task can never be expressed in words. Everyone comes across various persons in life but there are very few persons who leave an indelible impression on one’s life and career.

At the very outset, I have immense pleasure to acknowledge my heart-felt gratitude and affectional regards toward my supervisor Dr. (Mrs.) Paramjit Nanda, Professor, Punjab School of Economics, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar for her valuable and insightful guidance during the entire stretch of this work. The deep interest that she took in the study could come only from a sense of commitment and involvement. But for her inspiration, moral support, expert guidance, prolonged sittings, untiring efforts, healthy criticism and valuable suggestions, I would not have been able to complete my research work in the present shape and form.

I am thankful to Dr. Vikram Chadha, Professor and Head, Punjab School of Economics, GNDU, Amritsar for providing me all facilities for my research work. I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Paramjit Dhindsa, Dr. Parminder Singh and Dr. Kuljit Kaur, Punjab School of Economics, GNDU, Amritsar for their encouragement.

With profound gratitude I express my thanks to Dr. P.S. Raikhry, Professor, Punjab School of Economics, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar who spared his valuable time to sort out my problems whenever I visited him. My thanks are also due to honourable Dr. R.S. Bawa and Dr. A.S. Sethi for their constructive suggestions and blessings.

I am also thankful to the staff of Bhai Gurdas Library, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar and Departmental Library of Punjab School of Economics.

I do not find appropriate words to pay my gratitude towards my families—both my parents (Sh. Kamal Kishore Mahajan and Smt. Veena Mahajan) and my in-laws (Mr. Davinder Singh and Mrs. Tirlochan Kaur). My humble thanks must also be reserved for my brother Dr. Amit Mahajan for his motivation and encouragement during my whole academic period.

I am failing in my duty, if I do not acknowledge the ever present support, guidance and motivation of my husband Mr. Harminder Singh. He, by ignoring his own work, gave priority to my work and helped me a lot in computer work and was always ready whenever I looked up to his help during the course of my research work. I am thankful to my little baby Sanshrya Singh, whom I have not given proper time because of completion of my research work.

I would also like to acknowledge the work of other economists from whose work I have benefitted. I am also thankful to S. Sukhdev Singh, Programmer, Computer Science Department, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar, for his contribution in general and computer work in particular for this research work.

Last but not least, I warmly appreciate the support, inspiration of all my family members and friends. I sincerely thank them all.

Dated: Mrs. Priyanka Mahajan
