Abstract

In this thesis, we study analogues of Ramanujan’s partition identities and congruences by using his cubic continued fraction, theta function identities and modular equations. We also find several new partition identities and congruences for partitions with designated summands in which all parts are odd and overpartition pairs into odd parts.