ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Research is seldom the work of a single person and this one is no exception. This research work would not have been possible without the support of several individuals who in one way or another helped me in the successful completion of this thesis. I take this opportunity to express my profound gratitude to all of them through these humble acknowledgements.

First and foremost, I would like to record my heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Chandan Singh for his exemplary guidance, constant encouragement, and proficient supervision throughout the research work. While I was exploring the Amazon of digital watermarking, he stood by me as a guide and evacuated me whenever I was trapped. Each of his suggestion was like a compass needle always pointing towards the right direction. His patience, logistics, and striving for perfection always inspired the canvasser in me and enriched me as a student, a researcher, and a professional. I gratefully acknowledge his momentous support and crucial contributions made during the research.

I also wish to place on records deep sense of gratitude towards my colleagues, technical and non-technical staff at Department of Computer Science, Punjabi University, Patiala, for their assistance and cooperation during the entire research period. The successful realization of this thesis would not have been possible without the resources provided by the Department. A special debt of gratitude is due towards Ms. Gagandeep for her all cooperation and support. My special thanks are also due to Dr. Davinder Singh, Director Planning and Monitoring, Punjabi University, Patiala. His efforts helped me to avail Faculty Improvement Programme (FIP) under the UGC’s scheme for the completion of this research.
My parents deserve special mention for their concern and blessings. I am especially grateful to my husband and two sons, who have always been a great source of inspiration and helped me in channelizing my enthusiasm to more fruitful avenue. I also owe them for their unconditional love and enduring support.

Finally, above all, my humble gratitude to the Almighty for giving me strength, determination and perseverance to get the task done.
