Acknowledgement
This study was undertaken in the year 1985 December, as a research project for my Ph.D. programme under the able guidance of Dr. Z. L. Jala, Ex-Reader, Post-graduate Department of History. I owe a deep debt of gratitude to my respected supervisor under whose inspiring guidance and encouragement, I completed my present work. This work could not have been completed without the help and able guidance which I have received from him. Dr. Jala helped me with his valuable advice and help at every stage of the research work. I am grateful to Dr. A. Q. Rafiqi, Professor and Ex-Head of the Post-graduate Department of History, University of Kashmir for advice, encouragement and help, I received from him. I am also greatly thankful to Dr. Muhammad Ishaq Khan, Professor and Head of the Post-graduate Department of History, University of Kashmir for valuable suggestions and for his kindness to me in all respects. I am thankful to my teachers, Dr. Madhvi Yasin, Dr. Abdul Majid Mattoo, Dr. Mohammad Ashraf Wani (all Readers of History Department) and Dr. Muhshitaq Ahmad Kaw (Lecturer in the Department of History) for their valuable suggestions and encouragement during my period of research. My thanks are also due to Professor Abdul Wahid, Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences, who got the period of my research project extended and thereby spared me a lot of anguish in my state of depression.
I am particularly grateful to Pandit Somnath (Kashmiri Department, University of Kashmir) for offering me valuable help in translating portions of the Kashmiri source material relevant to my topic of research. I also express my sincere gratefulness to all the staff members of the Iqbal Library, University of Kashmir. Here I must make special mention of the names of Mr. A. R. Lattoo, (Seminar Library, Post-graduate Department of History) Mr. G. A. Wani (Librarian of Law Department), and Shri A. K. Trakroo (Research Library), who extended to me their cooperation and help. I am also thankful to Mr. Ghulam Rasool Bhat, for his valuable help he extended to me in translating certain relevant extracts from Persian sources. I also express my deep gratitude to Dr. B.N. Kella (Central Asian Studies) for his suggestions on various aspects of language. I am specially indebted to Shri Moti Lal Saqi, (Cultural Academy) for lending me some rare journals and periodicals I owe him more than the language can express. I owe a deep sense of gratitude to Mr. Mohammed Qasim Khawaja (K. C. S. Judicial) Sub-Judge for furnishing me information on Shia ceremonies connected with birth, marriage and death.

I am also indebted to my co-scholars or fellow researches particularly, Mr. Fayaz Ahmad Wanchoo, Mr. Bashir Ahmad Khan, Mr. Bashir Ahmad Bhat, Mr. Mohd. Qazim Wani and Mr. Parveez Ahmad for their valuable suggestions and the discussions I had with them.
I should be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratitude to Shri B. P. Sharma for help and valuable suggestions during my stay at Jammu. Thanks are also due to Shri S. D. Khajuria, Mrs. Khajuria and their son Shri Rohit Khajuria for extending me all help and facility at their place. I am also thankful to Dr. M. L. Kapur, Dr. S. S. Chark and Dr. D. C. Sharma of Jammu University for their valuable suggestions. I am also thankful to the following institutions and staff members who helped me in making available the required research material relevant to my research project:

I. Research Library, Srinagar (Research and Publication Department).
II. The Jammu and Kashmir Information Library, Srinagar.
III. City Central Public Library, Srinagar.
IV. S. P. S. Public Library, Srinagar.
V. The Jammu and Kashmir State Archives, Jammu, Srinagar.
VI. The Jammu and Kashmir Academy of Art, Culture and Languages, Srinagar.
VII. S. P. S. Museum Library, Srinagar.
VIII. Ranbir Library, Jammu.
IX. Dogra Art Gallery, Jammu.

I am thankful to Mohammad Shafi Zahid (Curator, Dogra Art Gallery, Jammu), Ayjaz Ahmed Banday (Curator S. P. S. Museum) and Professor M. N. Dulloo for their valuable advice and help in all possible ways.
My thanks are also due to the members of the non-teaching staff of my Department particularly Mr. Ghulam Muhammad Dar who spared no pains in typing out this thesis.

Last but not least, I must record my feelings of gratitude to my family members, for their unfailing encouragement and cooperation in all possible ways.

Farhat Jabeen

(FARHAT JABEEN)