ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study was undertaken in the year 1986 as a research project for my M.A. programme under the supervision of Dr. Madhvi Yasin, ex-Reader, Post-Graduate Department of History, University of Kashmir. It is with a sense of gratitude that I acknowledge my indebtedness to her. This work could not have been completed without the help and able guidance which I received from her. I am equally grateful to Dr. Z. L. Jala, ex-Reader, Post-Graduate Department of History, who took personal interest in seeing me complete the project. I am grateful to Dr. Muhammad Ishaq Khan, Professor and Head of the Post-Graduate Department of History, University of Kashmir, for his valuable suggestions and kind help. I am also grateful to Professor A. C. Fafizi, ex-Head of the Post-Graduate Department of History for his parental affection and kindness. I am equally thankful to Dr. Abdul Majid Mattoo, Dr. W. Ashraf and Dr. Mushtaq Ahmed Kew without whose brotherly affection and scholarly guidance this attempt could be a far fetched dream. Many thanks are also due to Professor A. C. Bose, Prof, Post-Graduate Department of History, Jammu University.

I am profoundly thankful to the authorities and staff of the Izabal Library, University of Kashmir. Here I must make special mention of the names of Mr. A. R. I am also thankful to Mr. Ghulam Rasool Bhat, for his valuable help he extended to me in translating certain relevant extracts from Persian sources. I am also thankful to the Incharge of cultural Academy for lending me some journals and periodicals. I owe him more than the language can express.

I am thankful to my cousin Shri T. N. Bhat, Director, Local Bodies Jammu, for paying me host while staying in Jammu. I am also thankful to those who furnished me information relevant to my topic. I am also indebted to my co-scholars or fellow researchers particularly Mr. Ghulam Hasan Mir. His friendly advice and brotherly help encouraged me a lot. It is he who helped me in collecting relevant material from the office of Nusrat-ul-Islam.

I should be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratitude to Shri B. K. Sharma for help and suggestions during my stay at Jammu.

I am also thankful to my wife, Shmt. Veena Bhat, who patiently bore the trouble in running the house while I was busy with my research work.
