Table of Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Declaration</th>
<th>Page No.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Acknowledgment</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Chapters

I. School Types and Personality Growth

1. Definition of a school and types of schools.
2. Definition of personality and dimensions of personality growth.
3. Relationship of school and personality growth.
4. Difference in school types as affecting personality growth.

II. Design of the Investigation

1. Statement and importance of the problem.
2. Delimitation of the problem.
3. Discussion of the design.
4. Limitations and controls.
5. The sample.

III. Related Literature

1. Textual material.
2. Material from the journals.
3. Material from other sources.

IV. Questionnaire on Objectives of School Types and Personality Adjustment

V. Value Study of Students in Schools of Three Types

VI. Personality Adjustment Study of Students

VII. Personality Adjustment (Continued)

VIII. Dynamics of Personality in Psycho-Social Context

IX. Summary and Conclusions

X. Appendix

1. Questionnaire (Allport, Vernon's, Scale Study of Values).
2. Adolescent Adjustment Inventory of N.Y. Reddy.
3. Rao's School Attitude Inventory
iv. Thematic Apperception Test
   (Murray and Morgan—Adoption).

v. A Questionnaire administered on school managers and teachers and Heads.

XII. BIBLIOGRAPHY