ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

As I near the completion of this journey, I look back with a smile at the time that has passed and with a prayer in my heart for all those who made this journey possible.

No words can express my gratitude for my supervisor Prof. N. Sivanna. Sir, I will always be indebted to you for your academic guidance and expertise throughout my doctoral journey. But more than that I am grateful to you for encouraging me when I felt low, for being a source of strength when I felt everything was falling apart, for telling me to “take a break and go watch a movie” when I could not handle to pressure and above all for overlooking all my mistakes and helping me find my way in research.

I am thankful to Prof. N. Jayaram (ex-Director) and Prof. R.S. Deshpande (Director), ISEC for the opportunity to study at the Institute. I am also grateful to SRTT fund for the grant of fellowship to facilitate my stay at ISEC and to carry out my research work.

To my doctoral committee members Prof. S.N Sangita, Prof. M.D Usha Devi and Prof. S. Madheswaran and panel members Prof. Abdul Aziz and Prof. Supriya Roychowdhury, I am extremely grateful for all the suggestions and comments you have provided since the inception of my study. You have not only shaped me as a researcher but also held my hand along the path.

My heartfelt thanks to Prof. Siddharth Swaminathan, Prof. V. Anil Kumar, Prof. B.P Vani, Prof. P.K Michael Tharakan (Kannur University) and Prof. G. Hargopal (University of Hyderabad), for timely interventions and suggestions to improve my work.

To Col. C.M Uthaiah, Registrar, ISEC, the administrative staff, especially Kamath sir, K.S. Narayana sir, Vimala, Murthy sir, Boopathy sir, Mohana, Leela ma’am, Sudarshan sir, Mohan sir, Shashi anna, Vinod, Kalyanappa sir, Venkatesh sir, Rajanna sir, Shantha ma’am, Sharmishta and Suresh, a big Thank You for answering our mundane queries, day after day, with the same hundred watt smile.
I am extremely grateful to Dr. Anwar Jafri, Director, Samavesh Bhopal for giving me permission to base my study in his organisation. My heartfelt thanks to the SPP team members Dhuleshwar bhai, Harish bhai, Yogesh bhai, Vani, Feroz, Gajanan bhai, Rajesh bhai and Santosh bhai who helped me understand the organisation and its working from the very beginning, who enthusiastically accompanied me to the villages and also took keen interest in my research work. I am amazed at the tireless efforts of the entire team at Samavesh who still remain as committed to the villages, schools and children they are working with as they were when they started about 10 years ago. I would also like to thank all the teachers, students, parents, community members, BRC and CRC officials who agreed to be a part of my study and patiently shared with me all that I wanted to know, and more.

It is said there is no ‘thank-you’ between friends, so all I can offer is love and special prayers: first and foremost for Jajati anna, for being my friend, philosopher, guide and above all a brother for life; for my very special IPSOC gang Lavanya, Sumedha, Tarun, Chetan, Mini and Sujata- Smile and Shine always; for all friends in hostel especially Angan uncle, Amit and Ramu; for Malavika, Payal, Debashree, Angie and Nikhil- we may be in different countries but I know you are just a phone call away.

“The lights of home shine twice as brightly, it’s the finest place you’ve ever seen, and they light the way through the darkest hours as you follow your dream”. This journey and this dream of mine would not have started if it wasn’t for my parents Sadhna and Yogesh Syal. For the long phone calls, for tolerating my tantrums, for letting me be and for making me what I am today…I have no words to express my gratitude but I know you’ll still understand. Sarvesh, thanks for the non-stop supply of jokes and one-liners, don’t ever let them stop. For my biggest pillar of strength at all times, Radhika didi loads of love. For Poonam and Deepak Sethi, thank you for acknowledging me as your third daughter. For Ruchika, thanks for the mutual motivation we share during our respective doctoral journeys halfway across the world. A special mention for both my grandmothers Lalita Syal and Raj Amar Nath. Thank you for all your prayers and blessings.
