ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I consider it my privilege and foremost duty to thank all those who helped me in several ways during the present research work.

I would like to record here my deepest gratitude towards Dr. K.S. Pitre, Reader, my teacher and supervisor, for his valuable guidance and constructive criticism during Ph.D. He has been a constant source of inspiration, during this long span of time, for, "when the intervals of darkness came, as come they must", he helped me to pursue the goal.

I am grateful to Professor S.P. Banerjee, Head, Department of Chemistry and Dean, Faculty of Sciences, Dr. Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar (M.P.) for his unvarying kindness and encouraging provision of facilities for my research work.

I express my profound sense of gratitude to Professor K.M. Vyas, Head, Department of Botany, Dr. Harisingh Gour Vishwavidyalaya, Sagar, for providing necessary facilities for antimicrobial studies and Shri Ravi Prakash Goswami, Research Scholar, Department of Botany for carrying out the actual microbial experiments.
My sincere thanks are due to Prof. N.K. Jain, Head, Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Dr. (Mrs.) Sunita Bhargava, Department of Zoology, and Shri Arvind Mishra for their valuable help and needful suggestions while performing pharmacological studies.

At last, but not least, I express my sincere thanks to Dr. S.N. Limaye for his affectionate encouragement throughout the course of my research.

I wish to express my gratitude to all of my Teachers and Seniors, specially to Shri. Anand V. Trivedi, Shri Rajendra P. Namdeo, Dr. Arun Jain and Dr. Nitin Labhasetwar who whole heartedly co-operated in the completion of this work. I am also thankful to my Research Colleagues Shri. Vinay Jain, Shri Yadvendra Rohan and Ku. Neerja Verma for their kind help in completing the work and extending a homely atmosphere.

Thanks are also due to the Network Computers, Sagar for giving a needed getup to the thesis.
I must not fail to express my gratitude to my respected Father Shri R.K. Narad, brothers, Shailendra and Sameer and my friend Raj Shrivastava for their constant invigoration, understanding and patience during my research.
