ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I take this opportunity to express my indebtedness and heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor and teacher Dr. R.N. Yadava, Reader, Department of Chemistry, Dr. H.S. Gour University, Sagar (M.P.), for his keen interest, vigilant guidance, constructive discussions, critical evaluation and affectionate encouragement during present investigation.

I am highly obliged to Prof. V.K. Saxena, Head, Department of Chemistry, Dr. H.S. Gour University, Sagar (M.P.) for his kind inspiration, encouragement and valuable suggestions during the course of my research work.

My vote of thanks also goes to Prof. S.P. Banerjee, Former Head, Department of Chemistry, Dr. H. S. Gour University, Sagar (M.P.) for availing all the facilities and assistance in solving unaccountable problems.

I am sincerely thankful to Director RSIC, CDRI Lucknow for recording various spectra incorporated in this thesis.

I solicit my sincere gratitude to Mrs. Sunila Yadava for their encouragement and blessings throughout this project.

I owe my profound gratitude to Dr. Alok Sahai, Asst. Prof., Govt. P.G. College, Damoh and Dr. Neera Sahai, Asst. Prof., Govt. Girls College Sagar, for their consistent support and encouragement through out the research work.

It is my pleasure to express sincere thanks to my seniors and colleagues Dr. K.I.S. Reddy, Dr. Prachi Tripathi, Dr. Saurabh Kumar, Dr. Saroj Yadav, Kavita Rathore, Sheetal Sodhi, Madhusudan Reddy, Vikash Verma, Lata Tiwari, Sujeet Kumar Singh and Abha Verma for extending their kind cooperation and needful advice during my research work.
Words alone cannot be enough to thank my adorable friend Rajnish Jain, Ashish Jain, Kshamavani Jain and Shruti Agrawal, who always stood for and by me during the course of my research work. Their encouragement and moral support was always endless till the expected work is completed.

I will not forget to give a word of thanks to my beloved elder sister Mrs Abha Goel, Assistant Professor, Govt. College, Satna, Mrs. Shalini Malaiya and Vinay Malaiya, younger brother Shashank, and younger Sister Shaphali for their sincere blessings and appreciation of my work.

At last but not at least it is a pleasant privilege for me to express my heartiest gratitude and indebtedness to my respected and loving parents Dr. S.K. Jain, Rtd. Sr. Scientist and Mrs. Shashiprabha. All the words could not sum up their pain and hardship had to face, in my ascent so that I can reach to this point.
